FIRST DISPATCH.

[OFFICIAL.]

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1865—11 o'clock A. M.

Maj.-Gen. Dix:

The following particulars, dated at City Point, April 4, 8 A. M., give the latest information received from Richmond:

DISPATCH FROM GEN. WEITZEL.

Gen. WEITZEL telegraphs from Richmond that of railroad stock he found there 28 locomotives, 44 passenger and baggage cars, and 106 freight cars.

DISPATCH FROM GEN. GRANT.

At 3:30 this morning Gen. GRANT from Sutherland Station, ten miles from Petersburgh, towards Burkesville telegraphs as follows:

"Gen. SHERIDAN picked up one thousand two hundred prisoners to-day, and from three to five hundred more have been gathered by our troops. The majority of the arms that were left in the hands of LEE's army are now scattered between Richmond and where his troops now are. The country is also full of stragglers. The line of retreat is marked with artillery, ammunition, burned or charred wagons, caissons, ambulances, etc."

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

SECOND DISPATCH.

[OFFICIAL.]

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4—11 P. M.

Maj.-Gen. John A. Dix:

The following telegram from Gen. GRANT has just now reached this Department. What hour to-day it left him does not appear, but probably in the afternoon:

No details of the casualties have been received, but they are expected here to-morrow.

The statement that official information had been received of Gen. CUSTER's being killed, is not true. He was unharmed late this afternoon.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

DISPATCH FROM GEN. GRANT.

WILSON STATION, Va., Tuesday, April 4.

Hon. Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

The army is pushing forward in the hope of overtaking or dispersing the remainder of LEE's army. SHERIDAN with his cavalry and the Fifth Corps is between this and the Appomattox, Gen. MEADE, with the Second and Sixth, following:

Gen. ORD is following the line of the Southside Railroad. All of the enemy that retains anything like organization have gone north of the Appomattox, and are apparently heading for Lynchburgh. Their losses have been very heavy. Houses through the country are nearly all used as hospitals for wounded men. In every direction I hear of rebel soldiers pushing for home—some in large, some in small squads, and generally without arms.

The cavalry have pursued so closely that the enemy have been forced to destroy probably the greater part of the transportation, caissons and munitions of war. The number of prisoners captured yesterday will exceed 2,000.

From the 20th of March to the present time our loss in killed, wounded and captured will not probably reach 7,000, of whom from 1,500 to 2,000 were captured, and many but slightly wounded.

I shall continue the pursuit as long as there appears to be any use in it.

(Signed) U. S. GRANT, Lieut.-Gen.

REPORTS FROM CITY POINT.

Railroad from Pitkins Station to Petersburgh—Telegraphic Communications—Rebel Rams and Forts Blown Up—Large Arrivals of Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, April 4.

A passenger from City Point who left there early yesterday morning, says:

"Late on Sunday night our men commenced laying a railroad track from Pitkins Station to Petersburgh, a distance of three miles, and also began throwing bridges over the river, the former ones having been destroyed.

We had heretofore occupied seven miles of the road from City Point to Pitkins Station, and the work now in progress will establish the complete line, ten miles from City Point to Petersburgh.

Only a few hours is required to establish telegraph communication with all points.

Very little property was destroyed by the rebels in Petersburgh, who during Sunday night made a hasty retreat.

President LINCOLN was at City Point yesterday morning, but subsequently visited Petersburgh.

It was supposed there that LEE was endeavoring to escape by way of the Danville railroad, and a portion of our army was following in that direction.

No particulars had been received up to the hour the passengers left City Point.

From the mail-boat Dictator, which left City Point yesterday at 10 A. M., the Star obtained the following among other items:

She reports that the receipt of the news of the fall of Richmond was received at City Point with the greatest enthusiasm, and the vessels in port were immediately gaily dressed with flags, presenting a handsome appearance.

At Fortress Monroe a salute was fired, and the sailors and soldiers expressed their joy in various ways.

On Sunday night, before the evacuation of Richmond, the rebels blew up their forts and rams in the James River, the explosion of which was terrific, resembling an earthquake, and was heard for miles around.

Our gunboats have moved up the James River, and are now engaged in removing the obstructions.

Gen. WEITZEL, upon entering Richmond, was directed by Gen. GRANT to allow no one to leave the city, or permit any one to enter, who was not connected with the army, or had authority to do so.

The rebels fired Petersburgh in several places before evacuating the town, but the fire was speedily extinguished.

Over 5,000 prisoners have already been received at City Point, and others are constantly arriving. In fact there were so many prisoners there that a sufficient number of troops could not be spared to guard them, and consequently detachments of sailors and marines were taken from the gunboats and placed in charge of them. The entire number of prisoners captured by our troops up to yesterday was estimated at 13,000 by well-informed officers.

Our wounded are being sent in to City Point as rapidly as possible, and hospital boats are there taking them on board for shipment to Baltimore and Washington.

The rebel deserters in the Bull Pen at City Point appeared to receive the fall of Richmond with as great enthusiasm as our own troops, and gave cheer after cheer.

The Decatur brought up nearly 700 rebel deserters, who desire to take the oath of allegiance.

THE BATTLE ON SUNDAY.

Graphic Account of the Brilliant Operations on Sunday.

From Our Own Correspondent.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
Monday, April 3—7 A. M.
via WASHINGTON, April 4.

I find I was correct in stating, not only that each Corps was to attack the enemy's lines at certain points at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, but that each attack was successful, and the entire line carried by them as quickly and surely as it was attempted, thus proving that mud walls are never impregnable when attacked with determination by an equal force, well supplied with artillery and other proper appliances for their assault. In the case of yesterday morning's assault, we were nowhere unsuccessful. If momentarily repulsed at any point, we only fell back for a time, gathered fresh strength, and returned to the charge, and were finally successful.

The Fifth Corps, which had held the extreme left, was, as I have already informed you, detached from this army on Saturday, and sent to aid Gen. SHERIDAN in his attack on the enemy's works near Ford's Station. The success of their operations I have already made known to you, and I understand that my statement is more than confirmed by the official account sent by Gen. GRANT to the War Department.

After accomplishing that result, the advantage was followed up. LONGSTREET's Corps of the enemy was so hardly pressed that it could not reunite with Gen. LEE's main army, and Gen. WARREN attacked it with such vigor that it was completely demoralized and routed. Yesterday Gens. SHERIDAN and WARREN continued to follow it up and drive it from every position it attempted to assume. I understand that it finally crossed the Appomattox River at a point nearly North of Black's and White's Station, on the Southside road, and retarded pursuit by felling trees across the road and burning bridges behind it.

As nearly as I can ascertain, while the combined forces of Gens. SHERIDAN and WARREN inflicted the most serious disasters upon the enemy, their own forces suffered comparatively little. It would afford me great pleasure to be able to give you details of their successes, and especially to be the first to herald the glorious achievements of the gallant Fifth Corps; and had it been possible for one person to have done this, and at the same time keep himself posted as to the operations of other corps in this army, I should certainly have done so. As it is, I regret to say that I could not accomplish it, but am compelled to leave that agreeable duty to your able and energetic correspondent who accompanies the cavalry corps, knowing that he will do the subject entire justice.

After LONGSTREET's forces were driven back by SHERIDAN and WARREN, and the right flank of LEE's army turned, Gen. HUMPHREYS led the Second Corps to the attack, and simultaneously the assault was made along the entire line to the Appomattox, near to Point of Rocks. At each point where the Second attempted an assault they were eminently successful, breaking through the enemy's works, capturing forts, guns, gunners, garrisons, stores, and, in short, everything. The strongest works on that portion of his line were ineffectual to withstand the shock of the well-directed and determined blows struck by the gallant Second, which nobly sustained the hard-earned reputation it acquired when under the lead of the brave and skillful HANCOCK.

I have heard various statements of the number of prisoners taken by this corps, but it is not possible to give the number correctly at this time, as squads have continued to be sent in since, from time to time, up till the hour of my writing. I believe the number taken in the first assault yesterday morning was about one thousand.

After capturing four heavy forts, all of which were well manned, and provided with powerful armaments, and seemed able to withstand a protracted siege, the Second Corps did not halt to give the enemy a breathing time, but followed them back, driving them from one position to another, until they were pressed around in front of the corps operating lower down the line. This corps was then set to work tearing up and destroying the Southside Railroad, from where it was struck by its left flank to the point where the Fifth Corps ceased the work of demolition on its right. This duty being performed, it was, I understand, detached from the army on its right, and sent to coöperate with the Fifth and cavalry corps in their operations againt LONGSTREET.

Great credit is accorded to Gen. HUMPHREYS, and his division commanders, Gens. MILES, HAYES and MOTT, as well as their subordinates, for the manner in which they handled the forces under them; and much of the success of the day's operations is attributable to their skill and bravery.

The Twenty-fifth Corps had only one division and part of another engaged. It performed nobly the task set for it, and was successful in capturing two large and well-defended forts, a goodly number of prisoners and sixteen guns. The American citizens of African descent, of whom the corps is wholly composed, fought with great gallantry and determination, and lost in killed and wounded a proportionate number with the other corps. You will remember that the corps has only been on this front a few days. The corps is commanded here by Gen. ORD, who also commands the Twenty-fourth.

After the Twenty-fifth Corps had taken the forts on the front and second lines of the enemy's works, it was withdrawn from its position between the Second and Twenty-fourth; and on the former being detached the latter was pushed by the flank and formed the extreme left. This corps is composed of the old Tenth, Eighteenth and Eighth, and has but two divisions here; the others being on the north side. The task assigned it was extremely important, and its labors very severe; but it accomplished successfully all that it was called upon to perform. It captured two very heavy forts—the heaviest on that portion of the line, together with several redoubts and a strong line of works. Its losses are not very heavy, although it was severely fought; and, in fact, the same is true of all the other corps. The assault was so sudden and effectual, and the enemy were driven back so quickly, that they had not time to inflict much injury upon our men. I have not been able to ascertain the number of prisoners or guns taken by this corps, but they were quite large.

The Sixth Corps had one of the most difficult and important duties assigned it. It was its task to break through the enemy's fortifications, and then moving by the flank, pierce his line of battle, and separate that portion of his army on its left from that on its right. This it accomplished to perfection and without assistance, and even before the Twenty-fourth moved to its support and extended the left of the line, it had almost completely invested that portion of LEE's forces within the fortifications of Petersburgh. Its division commanders, Gens. WHEATON, GETTY and SEYMOUR, proved themselves to be worthy all the praise they have hitherto received from the press, and the entire corps won for itself imperishable honors. The place where it broke through the enemy's works was one of the strongest positions he occupied west of Petersburgh. The works were well built, and their situation just such as an able military engineer would be glad to select; yet they were not sufficient to deter the heroes of the Valley of Virginia from the attempt to break through them, nor to withstand the tremendous shock of their determined assault. The movements of this corps were executed with such vigor and rapidity that its losses are comparatively light. The killed and wounded will not probably exceed 500 in the aggregate.

LATER.

PETERSBURGH, Monday, April 3.

As the headquarters of the Second Division of the Ninth Corps, at which I make my abiding place, are now in this city, I concluded to remove hither to finish my letter.

After my last dispatch of yesterday, I learned fuller particulars respecting the assault by this corps than it was at that time possible for me to know. It seems that the First Division, Gen. WILCOX's, attacked the works in front of Forts Hazlett and Steadman, and although the movement was intended only as a feint to withdraw their attention partially from the assault opposite Forts Morton, Davis and Sedgwick, by the Second and Third Divisions, they succeeded in effecting the capture of two heavy forts, and in holding them until ordered to withdraw, so as to be ready to assist the Second and Third Divisions, should their aid be required.

As was foreseen, the enemy made a desperate effort to break through our lines in front of the Second and Third Divisions, with a view to turn our right and force it back on our left, and this front therefore became the most important point on our line, surpassing even that of our extreme left, as it protected our base. They had massed their troops here for aggressive operations, and on the left for defensive movements, and at both points fought desperately. The Fifth and Second Corps had defeated them on the left on the previous day, and as we advanced there, they contracted their lines at that point, and threw all the troops they could spare thence into their works on this point; hence it was that the Ninth Corps had the severest, the most desperate and determined resistance to encounter from the rebels. The officers and men of the corps felt the importance of the duty entrusted to them, and resolved to be faithful in its performance, and went to work with minds fully made up "to do or die." Although they succeeded in capturing the works at the first assault on the enemy's front line, the latter had so many strong positions in the rear to fall back upon, that the task was then but just begun. The assault took place at 4 o'clock A. M., and by troops who had been under arms all night; yet from that hour till midnight the battle was waged with varying success. The enemy reinforced his line three times, and three times succeeded in retaking a portion of his works; but only to be driven out again by the very men of the Second and Third Divisions who had alone and unaided succeeded each time in forcing him back.

This state of affairs continued until two o'clock P. M, when the Provisional Brigade of Gen. COLLIS, and the Engineer Brigade of Gen. BENHAM, from City Point, and Gen. HAMLIN's brigade of the Sixth Corps arrived on the ground. The timely arrival of this small support enabled us again to drive back the enemy, and at midnight he retired to the city, and prepared to cross the Appomattox. Already he had burned his stores, destroyed bridges, railroad tracks, etc., and run off to Richmond the cars on the Richmond and Petersburgh Railroad.

We entered the city at 3 o'clock this morning, the Ninth Corps being the first of this army to tread its streets, an honor they richly merited by their arduous labors and desperate bravery in their share of its capture.

H. H. YOUNG.

P. S.—At this hour the fighting has ceased, and the enemy has retired across the river. As for results, you will get them before this reaches you; and as the train is coming I will not attempt to give them.

H. H. Y.

Further Details of the Battle on Sunday—Desperate Character of the Fighting on Both Sides—Our Captures and Losses.

Dispatch to the Associated Press.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
April 2, 1865.

The most important victory the Army of the Potomac has ever gained in Virginia was won today, and the outer line of works, which we have been trying in vain for months to overcome, has at last yielded to our victorious arms, and the greater portion of this army are to-night within a mile and a half of the city, on the southwest side.

The struggle made by the enemy to retain these works has been of the most desperate character, and for the success obtained to-day we are indebted not only to the strategy exercised by the commanders, but to the overwhelming numbers and bravery of the troops that did the work.

The orders for an attack on the line east and south of Petersburgh, by the Sixth and Ninth corps, were carried out punctually at daylight—the artillery having been hammering away the greater part of the night along the entire line held by the above corps.

Such a furious cannonade has very seldom been heard during the war—not even surpassed by that which was heard on the occasion of the mine explosion in front of Petersburgh.

The Ninth Corps troops engaged in the action were the Second and Third Divisions, and Col. SAM. HARRIMAN's brigade of the Third Division.

The charge was made in front of Forts Hell and Rice, on the Jerusalem road, and was so far successful that by 8 A. M., we were in possession of three fortifications—Fort Mahone being the most elaborate and extensive.

These works contained fourteen guns, some of which were at once opened on the enemy by men belonging to our infantry regiments.

Just inside and about one hundred yards from Fort Mahone was another work to which the rebels retreated, and from whence they threw a most destructive fire upon our men, causing them to retire from the northern ends, when the rebels made a dash, thinking to recover it entirely, but the guns in the right wing as well as in the centre had been manned and shotted and the assailants were driven back.

From this time till late in the afternoon the struggle continued, the enemy using every effort to recover the fort, while our men were determined to retain possession of what they had fought so hard and paid so dearly for.

About noon the chances seemed that we should lose it; but soon after the Provisional Brigade, under Gen. COLLISS, and the Engineer Brigade, under Gen. BENHAM, with Gen. HAMLIN's brigade, of the Sixth Corps, came on the ground, and by their timely arrival saved the gallant men in the fort from capture, and again caused the enemy to retire.

The fire which rained on the ground and around this fort was of the most terrible and fearful character, and to stand and see our men advance on a run through the very thickest of it, many of them being torn to pieces and lost to sight before they crossed half the distance, was a sight not soon to be forgotten.

At dark the position of the contestants was the same as during the day.

Gen. WILCOX, with part of his division, made an attack in front of Fort McGilvery, near the Appomattox, and took part of the line, but was soon after forced to retire to his former position, owing to lack of supports.

The loss of the Ninth Corps will reach from eight hundred to one thousand in killed, wounded and prisoners, among whom are Gen. POTTER, commanding the Second Division, who is badly wounded in the groin, but not fatally, it is thought; Col. GATCHELL, of the Thirty-first Maine, severely; Major BOLTON, Thirty-first Maine, severely; Col. GANSO and Lieut.-Col. WINSLOW, of the One Hundred and Seventy-ninth New-York, wounded; Major MORROW of the Two Hundred and Fifth Pennsylvania, lost a leg; Lieut. ALEXANDER, of the same regiment, killed.

The corps has taken fourteen guns, about two hundred prisoners, and two battle-flags. The latter were taken by the Two Hundred and Eleventh Pennsylvania.

The Sixth Corps struck the enemy's line in front of Fort Welch, near the celebrated lead works, and carried them with very slight loss. They at once pushed for the Southside road, which they reached about 9 o'clock, and in a very short time several miles of it were torn up and destroyed. They then moved on down toward Petersburgh, driving the rebels before them across Town Run and into their inner line, close to the city. They took a large number of prisoners—about two thousand—and some twenty guns.

No attack on the inner line has been made as yet, as the position is a strong one, and will either be defended to the last or evacuated during the night. The Twenty-fourth Corps, holding the line north of Hatcher's Run and south of the Duncan Road, connecting with the Sixth Corps on the right, and the Second on the left, advanced at daylight and took the works in their front, with slight loss. Over one thousand prisoners were captured here. The troops were FOSTER's and TURNER's divisions, under Gen. GIBBON. They were supported by the Colored Division of the Twenty-fifth Corps, but the latter did not get into action.

The Second Corps, which held the line from the run a mile and a half east of the Boydtown Road to over a mile west of it, delayed advancing until SHERIDAN, with the Fifth Corps, got within supporting distance on the extreme left, when the entire line moved forward, carrying the works almost without opposition.

The enemy was found to have fallen back from this part of the line, owing to the Sixth Corps cutting them off, they having reached the Southside Road early in the forenoon, and were busy tearing it up. This, of course, cut the rebel army in two, and the two divisions, thus caught between the Sixth and Second Corps, at once started across the Southside Road toward the Appomattox, hoping to be able to ford it, and thus escape capture. But it appears they ran against SHERIDAN, and, putting on a bold appearance, made a show to fight.

News to this effect reaching headquarters, two divisions of the Second Corps were at once sent to flank, and if possible, capture the entire command.

Our losses during the day cannot be given, but it is believed two thousand will cover them. Many valuable officers are among the number, whose names, however, are not obtainable to-night.

Our captures will sum up about nine thousand prisoners and thirty-eight guns, including those taken by Gen. SHERIDAN yesterday.

The loss of the enemy in killed and wounded is not estimated, but in front of the Ninth Corps they lie on the ground very thick, for there they were mown down by the hundred, at each effort to regain their lost ground.

Gen. RANSOM is badly wounded, and a prisoner in our hands. He was found at a house on the Boydtown road, from which it was dangerous to move him.

Gen. A. P. HILL is reported killed, by prisoners.

MONDAY, April 3—5:30 A. M.

Petersburgh is ours. The Second Brigade, First Division, Ninth Corps, took possession this morning at daylight.

Details by Way of Fortress Monroe—The Occupation of Petersburgh—Movements of Our Gunboats—Exchange of Prisoners.

FORTRESS MONROE, Monday, April 3, via BALTIMORE, Tuesday, April 4.

Intelligence of the capture of Petersburgh and Richmond reached here to-day at 10 o'clock, by a dispatch from Gen. WEITZEL, dated 8:15 this morning, which announced the glorious event.

The mail steamer Decatur arrived from City Point at 4:30 this afternoon, and brings down additional particulars of the great struggle.

Petersburgh was occupied by our troops at 3 o'clock this (Monday) morning.

Our gunboats were all well up the James River, and it was thought that a fight had occurred with the rebel iron-clads.

Large fires were seen up the James River last night toward Fort Darling, and in the vicinity of the other rebel works, from which it was inferred that LEE was abandoning his works and retreating from his long-established lines.

An immense number of prisoners have been captured, variously estimated at from fifteen to eighteen thousand.

Prisoners are continually arriving at City Point, and it was estimated that there were fifteen thousand there this morning.

When the Dictator left, at 10 A. M., a salute was being fired by all the war vessels at that point.

The steamer Cossack also arrived here to-day with a large number of Union prisoners, including Gen. MCLAUGHLIN and the men of his brigade captured with him by the rebels in the assault on Fort Steadman.

Such was the haste of the rebels in hurrying the Union prisoners through Richmond on Sunday, that in many cases many were not even paroled.

Five hundred out of the seven hundred on board the Cossack never signed the parole.

These released prisoners say that, in coming through Richmond yesterday, (Sunday,) they saw manifest indications of the evacuation of the city.

The streets were alive with people of all classes, conditions and ages, manifesting intense excitement.

All the Union prisoners in Libby Prison had been ordered to be exchanged by the rebel authorities, and were hurried through the City of Richmond toward the Varina Landing in the greatest possible haste.

The Remnant of Lee's Army Divided, and Retreating in Two Columns.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, April 4.

Correspondents from City Point state that LEE has divided the remnant of his army, and is retreating in two small columns.

Our prisoners at noon yesterday exceeded twenty-five thousand.

The rebel destruction of property on their retreat literally beggars description.

Stragglers and deserters are even in excess of what was anticipated.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

ALBANY, Tuesday, April 4.

BILLS PASSED.

Authorizing the Manhattan Gaslight Company to charge $3 50 per 1,000 feet for gas.

Mr. FIELDS moved to amend by requiring said company to observe every requirement and stipulation of its contract with the City of New-York for lighting certain streets and places.

The motion was carried.

Mr. MUNGER moved to amend by providing that at the expiration of two years the company shall return to the old charge of $2 50 per 1,000 feet.

Mr. ANDREWS opposed the motion. He thought that to again impose such a restriction, which was originally imposed at the instance of a rival company, and which is not imposed upon any other company in the State, would be unnecessary and unjust.

The motion prevailed by a vote of 12 to 9, and the bill passed.

For the relief of the Bath and Coney Island Bridge Company.

Amending the Brooklyn Water Act.

Incorporating the Soldiers' Messenger Corps.

Incorporating the Atlantic Base Ball Club.

To improve Riverdale-avenue from Yonkers to Kingsbridge.

To create a new ward in New-York.

Incorporating the New-York Gladiator Benevolent Association.

Amending the act relating to acknowledgments of written instruments in foreign countries.

The Senate, in Committee of the Whole, resumed consideration of the bill amending the Registry Law.

Mr. HOBBS spoke in favor of striking out the clause which provides that an elector shall not vote unless he is registered before the day of election. He considered it unconstitutional, and argued that, if a man's name can be stricken off before the day of election, on the testimony of two witnesses, he certainly ought to be entitled to the privilege of having it registered, in case a wrong has been done him, on the day of election, upon the evidence of equally creditable witnesses.

Mr. LOW replied that, if it be unconstitutional for the Legislature to say that a man shall not vote unless he is registered before the day of election, it must be equally unconstitutional to say that, if not registered on the day of election, he shall not vote, except upon the testimony of two freeholders, and yet this is the law now.

Progress was then reported, and the bill made the special order for to-morrow.

ASSEMBLY.

ALBANY, Tuesday, April 4.

Mr. VAN BUREN offered the following:

Resolved, the Senate concurring, That this Legislature, deeply impressed with the magnitude and importance of the events now transpiring in the battle-fields of the Republic, sends greeting to our fellow-citizens and to the lovers of justice and peace everywhere.

Resolved, That we render our profound acknowledgments to God for his loving kindness and mercy to us as a nation, and we hail with joy the coming time when "sweet peace" shall smile again upon the land.

Resolved, That we return our heartiest thanks to Lieut.-Gen. GRANT and all the officers and men of the Grand Army of the Union, for the heroism they have displayed, the sacrifices they have made the great results they have achieved, and for the happy end they have brought so near. A nation's gratitude will enshrine them in the heart of its free millions, and an admiring world will do them lasting honor.

Unanimous consent was asked and granted to consider these resolutions at will, and they were adopted without dissent.

The Supply and Charity Bills were made the special order for this evening.

BILLS PASSED.

To change the name of the New-York Free Academy to New-York Free College.

To authorize County Judges to appoint criers.

To discontinue a portion of Second-avenue, Brooklyn.

ELECTION OF STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

The hour of 12 having arrived the Speaker announced the special order, which was the election of State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Sergeant-at-Arms announced the arrival of the Senate.

Lieut.-Gov. ALVORD took the Speaker's chair, and pronounced the Senate and Assembly in joint convention for the election of State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Messrs. WHITE, of the Senate, and SANFORD, of the Assembly, were appointed Tellers.

The roll of the Senate and Assembly was called, the members present voting, with the following result:

Whole number of votes cast, 134; necessary to a choice, 68.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| For Victor M. Rice | 87 | For Joseph Warren | 39 |
| For Benj. W. Downing | 5 | For John B. Thorn | 1 |
| For Horace Greeley | 1 | | |

The election of VICTOR M. RICE was announced by the Lieutenant-Governor, for three years from the first Tuesday in April, 1865.

The joint convention was then dissolved.

BILLS PASSED.

To amend the act relative to the sale of bottles for use of mineral water.

To authorize the City of Brooklyn to issue bonds to raise money.

THE DRY-DOCK BILL.

Mr. SALMON moved to suspend the order of the third reading of bills, in order to go into Committee of the Whole on the Dry-Dock Railroad bill. Carried—63 to 22.

In Committee of the Whole, Mr. VEDDER moved to report progress. Lost.

Mr. SALMON advocated the bill. No remonstrance had been sent here against it, and it was desired by the people. Messrs. LYON, STEWART and CREAMER favored the bill. Mr. MCCONNELL could not but notice the contrast presented in consideration of this bill, as compared with the Broadway parallel bill. The acquiescence in this case was ominous. The New-York members were rampant against any infringement upon the franchises of New-York City. Now, all were silent upon that point.

Mr. SALMON had offered the parallel road because his constituents had urged him to do so.

Mr. WEAVER said that this was one of that class of bills that had been moved ahead out of its place. He desired more time to consider, it not having had his attention called to it until this morning. He therefore moved to report progress, which was carried.

When the committee had been dissolved, Mr. ANGEL moved to order the bill to its third reading.

Mr. VAN BUREN moved to adjourn. Which was lost.

Mr. WARD moved to extend the time of adjournment until the question now before the House should be disposed of. Which was carried.

Mr. BRANDRETH moved the previous question on Mr. ANGEL's motion.

Mr. VEDDER moved to adjourn. Which was lost.

The previous question was ordered by 57 against 42 votes, and the bill was ordered to a third reading by 58 against 42 votes. Adjourned.

RICE—Is dull and heavy, at from $9 25@$10 50 ℘ 100 ℔s.

SEEDS—Are quiet, being held above the views of buyers.

SPICES—Are inactive and quite unsettled.

SUGARS—Have been in fair demand at about former rates. Sales since our last comprise 1,470 hhds. Cuba, &c., at 10½c.@13¾c., and 1,200 boxes Havana at 12¼c.@12½c. ℘ ℔. Refined Sugars are selling at 13½c.@18½c. ℘ ℔. Messrs. Stuart now quote their Refined Sugars thus: Loaf, 18½c.; best crushed, 17¾c.; granulated, 17¾c.; ground, 17¾c.; white, A, 16½c.; yellow, C, 15½c., cash, ℘ ℔.

TALLOW—Sales 137,000 ℔s., at 11c.@11½c. ℘ ℔.

TOBACCO—Is inactive; 103 hhds Kentucky were sold at 10c.@18c., ℘ ℔. The movements in tobacco during March, Messrs. M. RADER & SON notice thus: "The peculiar state of our financial affairs has caused a general derangement in the value of merchandise, and made it extremely difficult to bring about transactions on a currency base. Most of the sales of the past month, about 2,500 hogsheads, were made for gold, the greater part being for export. We, therefore, give our quotations in that standard. But even on that base it is not easy to connect transactions, as sellers and buyers are at variance, the former considering previous gold prices at the greatly reduced rates as sufficient inducement, whereas the latter, under the general decline of mercandise, expect further concessions. The undesirability of the stocks on hand is also a bar to a regular demand. The receipts of new crop are still very small, and show very little of a decided character. Prices in the West, under the existing pressure, have receded, and all speculative operations suspended. We look for no revival until late this season. Quotations in gold are: Lugs, 4½c.@6½c.; Common Leaf, 5¾c.@8c.; Medium Leaf, 7c.@10c.; Good Leaf, 8½c.@13c.; Fine Leaf, 11c.@16c.; Selections, 14c.@20c., ℘ ℔. For Spanish Tobacco the demand has slightly improved in consequence of the decline of prices to assimilate to the fall of gold. The sales have been about 700 bales Havana fillers and fillery assorted at $1@$1 20 ℘ ℔., duty paid. 120 bales Cienfuegos at 20c. ℘ ℔., in bond, and 65 bales Yara at 95c. ℘ ℔, duty paid. Seedleaf Tobacco has continued dull, the few sales being mostly for jobbing purposes. Prices, although lower, have not fully declined to the stand of gold, and this fact, more than anything else, has prevented purchases to some extent. This is especially the case with running and wrappery lots. Manufactured Tobacco has been nominal, the sales being almost entirely of a retail character."

TEAS—Are inactive and unsettled in price.

WHISKY—Sales to-day, 250 bbls., in lots, at $2 12 @$2 13 ℘ gallon.

FREIGHTS—For Liverpool, the engagements were more extensive to-day, including 50 tons Logwood at 4s. 6d. ℘ ton; also, by steamer, 380 bales Cotton at ½d. ℘ ℔., with 150 boxes Bacon, 300 boxes Cheese, 100 packages Butter, and 100 tcs. Lard on private terms. For London, 100 tcs. Beef, on private terms; and by steamer, 70 boxes Bacon at 30s. For Bremen, 2,000 boxes Extract of Logwood and 60 hhds. Tallow at 10s.; 75 hhds. Tobacco at 17s. 6d. For Havana, a British brig (of 3,000 bbls. capacity) on private terms.

ARMY SUPPLIES.

OFFICE OF THE
ASSISTANT COMMISSARY-GENERAL OF SUBSISTENCE,
No. 4 STATE-ST., NEW-YORK, March 31, 1865.

Sealed proposals (in duplicate) will be received by the undersigned until 4 o'clock P. M. on WEDNESDAY, April 5, for supplies, for the use of the United States Army, SUBSISTENCE STORES, to be delivered in New-York or Brooklyn, as follows, viz.:

2,850 barrels first quality kiln-dried CORN MEAL, two-thirds to be manufactured from white-flint corn; sample of package to accompany proposals.

38,300 pounds of ROASTED AND GROUND RYE, to be packed in good strong barrels made of seasoned oak, paper lined. The rye to be a good, sound, thoroughly cleaned article; to be inspected and accepted before roasting. Sample of the rye in the natural state as well as in the roasted and ground form, to be sent in with the proposals.

40,000 pounds first quality DRIED PEACHES, in strong, tight half-barrels.

The goods to be furnished as soon as practicable; bidders are requested to state the time when they can deliver.

Separate proposals, in duplicate, must be made for each article enumerated, and bidders may propose for the whole or any part of each.

Samples of all the articles must be delivered with the proposals, and referred to therein. Samples of R. and G. Rye must be in neat boxes of card-board or tin, fully labeled, and not in paper parcels.

A printed copy of this advertisement must be attached to each proposal, and the proposals must be specific in complying precisely with all the terms. Each bid, to have consideration, must contain the written guaranty of two responsible names, as follows:

"We, the undersigned, hereby guarantee that should all or any part of the above bid be accepted, it shall be duly fulfilled according to its true purport and conditions; also, that a written contract, with bonds to the amount of one-fourth the value of the stores proposed to be furnished, shall be executed, if required."

The seller's name, place of business and the date of purchase, as well as the name of contents, with weight, gross and tare, and shipping marks to be hereafter designated, must be plainly marked on every package. All other old marks must be obliterated.

All the stores will be carefully inspected before the delivery, and compared with the retained samples. Returns of weights, signed by a professional Public Weigher, must be furnished.

Payment will be made in currency or its equivalent, as soon as funds are received for the purpose.

Contractors are expected to hold their goods without expense to the United States, until required for shipment.

Blanks for Proposals will be furnished at this office, which must be inclosed in an envelope addressed to the undersigned, and indorsed "Proposals for Subsistence Stores."

OFFICE OF
ASSISTANT COMMISSARY GENERAL OF SUBSISTENCE,
No. 4 STATE-ST., NEW-YORK, April 4, 1865.

Sealed proposals (in duplicate) will be received by the undersigned until 4 o'clock P. M., on THURSDAY, the 6th inst., for supplying for the use of the United States Army, SUBSISTENCE STORES, to be delivered in New-York or Brooklyn, as follows, viz.:

20,000 pounds best quality of ADAMANTINE CANDLES, to be 16 ounces to the pound, one-half sixes, the remainder twelves.

10,000 pounds good hard SOAP, to be made by boiling, and only from good materials, free from clay, soluble glass, or other adulteration, to have no unpleasant odor, to contain not more than twenty-five per cent. of water, and to be well dried before being packed.

20,000 pounds of good, clean, dry, fine SALT, in strong tight barrels and half-barrels, adapted to the purpose, with full head lining; sixty pounds to the bushel.

1,000,000 pounds first quality PILOT BREAD, to be made of good sound Extra Ohio or other equally good side-branded flour; crackers to be thoroughly baked and perfectly dried before being packed, and in size, thickness, openness, &c., to conform to standard, heretofore established; to be packed in boxes of 50 pounds bread to each box; boxes to be made of fully seasoned wood, of such kinds as will impart no taste or odor to the bread; bottom and top of single pieces, or if of two pieces tongued and grooved together. Boxes to be strapped with light straps of suitable wood. The Flour and Bread will also be examined by the Inspector, who will reject all that in the quality of the flour, or in any other respect, is inferior to the standard samples. Bidders to state the location of their bakeries, when they can begin their deliveries, and how much bread they can deliver daily.

As far as the bread required can be furnished in time for shipment, awards under this advertisement will only be made to the lowest bidders.

The goods to be furnished as soon as practicable. Bidders are requested to state the time when they can deliver.

Separate proposals, in duplicate, must be made for each article enumerated, and bidders may propose for the whole or any part of each.

Samples of all the articles must be delivered with the proposals, and referred to therein.

A printed copy of this advertisement must be attached to each proposal, and the proposals must be specific in complying precisely with all the terms. Each bid, to have consideration, must contain the written guarantee of two responsible names, as follows:

"We, the undersigned, hereby guarantee that, should all or any part of the above bid be accepted, it shall be duly fulfilled according to its true purport and conditions; also, that a written contract, with bonds to the amount of one-fourth the value of the stores proposed to be furnished, shall be executed, if required."

FRESH BEEF AND VEGETABLES.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF PROVISIONS AND CLOTHING,
March 30, 1865.

SEALED PROPOSALS, indorsed "Proposals for Fresh Beef and Vegetables," will be received at this bureau until 2 o'clock P. M. on the 20th day of April next, for the supply of 200,000 pounds of fresh beef and 200,000 pounds of fresh vegetables, at the New-York station, as required. The beef and vegetables must be of good quality, and the best the market affords, and each article must be offered for by the pound. The beef to be in equal proportions, fore and hind quarters. Bond, with approved security, will be required in one-half the estimated amount of the contract, and twenty per cent. in addition will be withheld from the amount of each payment to be made, as collateral security for the due performance of the contract, which will on no account be paid until it is fully complied with.

Every offer must be accompanied by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation within five days, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the article proposed.

No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by such guaranty, and by satisfactory evidence that the bidder is a regular dealer in the article proposed, and has the license required by law.

The department reserves the right to reject any proposal not considered advantageous to the government.

CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
No. 1,139 GIRARD-ST.,
PHILADELPHIA DEPOT, March 31, 1865.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this office until MONDAY, April 10 1865, at 12 o'clock M., for delivering at the Schuylkill Arsenal, in merchantable packages (cases to be made to conform to specifications at this office.)

IT WAS MY MOTHER'S VOICE.

Oh, mother dear, I had a dream,
So sad and yet so bright,
When wounded on the battle plain,
I lay at dead of night;
A gentle strain fell on my ear,
That made my heart rejoice—
So soft and sweet, it seemed to me,
It was my mother's voice.

HOURS—Gentlemen from 6 to 8 A. M. and 3 to 9 P. M. Ladies from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. Closed on Sundays.

If you wish to secure or preserve your HEALTH, STRENGTH and BEAUTY, and enjoy one of the greatest of luxuries, try a Turkish Bath. In the East these baths have been made use of for centuries, both as a luxury and a religious exercise, by those who regard physical cleanliness as an aid to moral purification.

The essential features of the bath are, bathing the entire body in heated air, (not steam,) thereby inducing a free perspiration; thorough shampooing of the whole body, and the application of water of different temperatures. The bath consists of a suite of rooms—the frigidarium or cooling-room, with which are connected the dressing-rooms; the tepidarium, or warm room; the sudatorium, or sweating room, and the lavatoria, or water-bathing rooms.

"When the cooling is complete, the body has come forth shining like alabaster, fragrant as the cistus, sleek as satin and soft as velvet. The touch of the skin is electric. At the conclusion of the process, the crispness of the skin returns, the fountains of strength are opened; you seek again the world and its toils; and those who experience these effects for the first time, exclaim: 'I feel as if I could jump over the moon!'"—From a description of the Turkish Bath by Dr. David Urquehart.

"The bath which cleanses the inward as well as the outward man, which is adapted to make health healthier and alleviate disease, whatever its stage or severity, deserves to be regarded as a national institution and merits the advocacy of all men."—Erasmus Wilson, F. R. S.

"No man can be called clean till he has bathed in the East. Let him walk directly from his accustomed bath and self-friction with towels, to the Turkish Bath, and the attendant will exclaim: 'Oh, Frank, it is a long time since you have been bathed!'"—Bayard Taylor.

What our own bathers say of the Turkish Bath:

"The Turkish Bath, as administered at this establishment, is a luxury, which, once enjoyed, will be sought as often as one's convenience permits."
"It is truly a religious institution."
"Remarkably invigorating."
"It is delicious, exquisite."
"It is the ne plus ultra of baths."
"Very exhilarating and bracing."
"I advise those who wish to be 'born again' to try it."
"The very method which Nature has adopted for its recuperation."
"I feel like a new man."
"I am youth rejuvenated."

WHAT THE LADIES SAY.

"I have tried the Turkish Bath in other countries, and that the one here surpasses all others."
"Even ladies 'afraid of water' need not fear to take this bath."
"For beautifying the complexion nothing can equal it."
"They are delightfully refreshing, and very remedial, rejuvenating and invigorating the whole physical system."
"Most delightful and agreeable."
"I feel ten years younger than before taking this bath."

☞ Strangers visiting New-York should not leave the city without enjoying this greatest of Eastern luxuries—a genuine Turkish Bath.

MEDICAL.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 62 Franklin-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 61 Franklin-st. Call, send, or write.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH regained in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitutions, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. Young man, are you subject to that soul and body destroying disease, secret habits? Dr. POWERS' Invigorating Essence is a never-failing cure. Sold by WALTER POWERS, M. D., No. 61 Franklin-st., between Broadway and Elm-st., New-York.

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL CONSULTATIONS.—Dr. R. COBBETT can be consulted with the most honorable confidence on private diseases at his conveniently-arranged suite of offices, No. 20 Centre-st., between Chambers and Reade sts., having a private entrance at No. 6 City Hall-place. From Dr. C. being one of the oldest, and probably the only qualified physician and surgeon in this City who makes diseases of the genitourinary organs a specialty, he is thus enabled to guarantee speedy and permanent cures, or make no charge. Strictures of the urethra, seminal weakness nervous and general debility treated on the most scientific principles. N. B.—See Dr. C.'s diplomas, in his office, as member of the New-York University Medical College, and College of Surgeons, London. Office hours, 9 A. M. to 8½ P. M.

DR. COOPER, NO. 14 DUANE-ST., MAY BE confidentially consulted on all diseases of a private nature. A practice of 30 years, devoted to the treatment and cure of Syphilitic, Mercurial and diseases of a delicate nature, enables Dr. C. to make speedy and permanent cures, no matter of how long standing the case may be. Strictures of the urethra and seminal weakness, brought on by a secret habit, effectually cured. The victims of misplaced confidence, who have been misled by quack advertisements, can call on Dr. C. with the certainty of being radically cured or no charge made.

ADVICE TO MARRIED LADIES, who require a safe and certain remedy for removing obstructions, from whatever cause. Can rely upon the celebrated INFALLIBLE FRENCH FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. No. 1, price $1 a box, to restore the monthly sickness in forty-eight hours, if of short standing; but obstinate cases, of long standing, may require No. 2, which are four degrees stronger than No. 1, and can never fail, are safe and healthy, price $5 a box. Sold at No. 127½ Liberty-st., and 162 Chambers-st., or sent by mail, with full instructions: address Box 2,350 N. Y. P. O.

DR. HUNTER'S BOTANIC CORDIAL REstores the vigor of youth in four days. Restores manhood to the most shattered system. No. 3 Division-st., New-York, the only place. Beware of bogus Dr. Hunters. The city is full of knaves, up to every trick to rob Dr. Hunter of his great reputation as a skillful and reliable physician. He has no other office but No. 3 Division-st. Established in 1834. Eight rooms and a private entrance. Book 50 pages, gratis, on nervous debility, early indiscretion, &c.

DR. POWERS' PERIODICAL DROPS are designed for both married and single ladies, and are the very best thing known for the purpose, as they will bring on the monthly sickness in case of obstruction from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. Expressly for obstinate cases. Warranted as represented in every respect, or the price will be refunded. ☞ Beware of imitations! Purchased directly of Dr. POWERS, 61 Franklin-st., N. Y.

IMPORTANT TO THE MARRIED.—DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, informs ladies that "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION" is for every lady, but more particularly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family. Price $1. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., N. Y.

THOUSANDS ARE RUINED BEYOND REDEMPTION in this life by not calling on Dr. HUNTER sooner or later. He can cure the worst cases of secret disease in a shorter time than any other physician, or no pay taken. Skeptics and doubters will please call and read lots of reliable certificates of cures made within the last thirty years of almost hopeless cases, that had had the benefit of dozens of our most eminent physicians and surgeons. Dr. Hunter is in constant attendance from 8 in the morning till 9 at night, at his old office, No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, since 1834. Charges moderate and a cure guaranteed. Separate rooms, so that the patient sees no one but the Doctor himself. His wonderful medical discovery, DR. HUNTER'S RED DROP, cures private diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, and possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless his remedy is used. This is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. $2 per vial. Book, 50 pages, gratis, on nervous debility, causes of impotency, [illegible]

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—A BEAUTIFUL AND EXTENSIVE country seat, the former residence of the late Dr. John Condit, deceased, situate on the easterly side of Passaic River, New-Jersey, about two miles from the City of Newark, and nine miles from City Hall, New-York, having a river front and shore of 2,000 feet or more; on the premises is a mansion and other dwellings, with large barns and other improvements; a splendid lawn extending from the river to the rear of the mansion, which stands on a beautiful eminence some thirty feet above the river; the mansion is surrounded and the lawn studded with stately elms and other forest and ornamental trees of smaller growth, and is tastefully laid out; the lands rise gently from the Passaic in its beauty to two hundred feet or more above its waters, where it presents a level surface and most commanding view, at which point there is in contemplation an avenue opening several commanding country sites; it embraces two hundred acres of land, one-quarter of which is heavily wooded, the balance being arable land and containing many valuable and most beautiful country or villa sites. Its nearness of access by railroad, and the beauty of the Passaic, and its surroundings in point of society renders it a desirable property, and will be sold as a whole or in parts, as it is susceptible of being divided into several country sites. Also, at Belleville, N. J., within five minutes' walk of the horse railroad, a fine property on Main-st., with a capacious and substantial dwelling, extensive lawn and dock lot in front on Passaic River. The subscriber further offers for sale about thirty-five acres of desirable lands for early gardening, in ten acres tracts or more, within two miles of Newark, in a sheltered position, with eastern slope. For further particulars inquire of THEODORE SANDFORD, Belleville, New-Jersey.

FARM FOR SALE—THE MANSION AND FARM of fifty acres situated at Glenville, Connecticut. Glenville is about two and three-quarter miles from Port Chester; Port Chester is one hour and a quarter ride on the New Haven R. R., from this city. The situation is unsurpassed for health and beautiful drives and scenery, and free from mosquitoes and fever and ague. The mansion was built about ten years since, contains all the modern conveniences, water, hot and cold, throughout the house. Two-thirds of the purchase money can remain on bond and mortgage, at six per cent., for a term of years. If required, the furniture will be sold also, and all ready for an immediate occupant. Apply to FENTZ BROS., No. 155 South-st.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE AT NEW ROCHELLE.—A fine country seat with 10 acres of ground; good house and outbuildings, hot house filled with choice flowers, fine lawn with shade and abundance of fruit trees, walks all graveled, fenced and fronting on 4th-st., a beautiful view of the Sound; the house is completely furnished; immediate possession can be given; the owner removing to the West will sell at a low price for cash, leaving a mortgage for $10,000, or will take good city property in part payment. Apply to JOHN O. HIGGINS, No. 7 Pine-st., Room No. 8.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

We give this morning, from our special correspondents, very interesting details of the recent battles for the possession of the rebel capital. The regular war dispatches also convey many important particulars, the wires being now working direct from City Point to Richmond. Gen. WEITZEL telegraphed early yesterday morning that he found 28 locomotives and 150 cars in the city. Gen. GRANT is said to have directed WEITZEL to allow No one to leave or enter the city except men connected with the army. On Sunday night, before the evacuation of Richmond, the rebels blew up their forts and rams on the James River, the explosion of which was terrible. Our gunboats have moved up the river, and are engaged in removing the obstructions. The rebels fired Petersburgh in several places before evacuating the town, but the fire was speedily extinguished. Gen. GRANT was, at 3½ o'clock on Tuesday morning at Sutherland's Station, ten miles from Petersburgh, from which point he telegraphs that "SHERIDAN picked up twelve hundred prisoners to-day, and from three to five hundred more have been gathered by our troops. The majority of the arms that were left in the hands of LEE's army, are now scattered between Richmond and where his troops now are. The country is also full of stragglers. The line of retreat is marked with artillery, ammunition, burned or charred wagons, caissons, ambulances, &c." We are yet without definite knowledge of losses on either side, but our captures of prisoners are something wonderful. A Washington dispatch estimates that we had taken more than 25,000 up to Monday noon. This figure is reduced by others to 20,000; others say 15,000 to 18,000. But this is, mainly, guesswork; GRANT has no time to make inventories. Many thousands of prisoners have already been received at City Point, and others are continually arriving. A sufficient number of troops could not be spared to guard them, and detachments of sailors and marines were taken from the gunboats and placed in charge. The destruction of property by the rebels is very great, but not equal to the general expectation. They burned some public buildings, but no attempt was made to convert Richmond into a Moscow; indeed, their haste was such that they lacked time for anything like systematic work. It is the general opinion, justified by GRANT's own position, that LEE is retreating upon the Danville Railroad, and that SHERIDAN is upon his flanks.

Gen. GRANT's latest official dispatch represent the enemy to be flying toward Lynchburgh, having evidently been headed off from the Danville road. The country is full of their wounded, almost every house being a hospital. They have destroyed most of their transportation caissons and war material. GRANT himself directs the pursuit which he promises to continue as long as there is anything to hunt down. The enemy's losses have been terrible, and his men are so disheartened that they are escaping to their homes at every opportunity. The country will be rejoiced to see that the Lieutenant-General puts our entire losses since the 28th of March at only 7,000, of whom from 1,500 to 2,000 are captured, and a large portion of the remainder are but slightly wounded.

The President has proclaimed a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of any person who may have crossed the borders of the United States, or entered ports by sea, from countries where they are tolerated, and have committed capital felonies against the property and life of American citizens. He also promises $500 upon conviction for the arrest of such persons who shall have aided and abetted officers of the above class before-named, within the territory of the United States.

Supplies are being crowded forward by rail and river to Goldsboro for SHERMAN's army. His boys have reveled in turkeys, chickens, eggs, and fresh vegetables ever since they left Savannah, and are now enjoying fresh shad from the Neuse River.

A steamer cleared from Washington yesterday for Richmond, with medical and engineer stores—the first clearance for that city since 1861. Immediate steps will be taken to restore the Post-offices in Richmond and Petersburgh.

Two hundred refugees from North Carolina arrived at Fortress Monroe on Sunday. Their condition is of the most distressing nature, many of them being incumbered with numerous children, barefooted, ragged and half starved.

The Navy Department has received information of the destruction of the extensive salt works on Buro Neck, McIntosh Co., Ga., by an expedition from the United States steamer Ladona.

JOHNSTON's army in North Carolina is said to be north of Tar River. A Goldsboro dispatch of the 1st inst. mentions a slight skirmish, but no fighting had taken place for several days.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

In the Senate yesterday a bill was passed authorizing the Manhattan Gas Company, of this city, to charge $3 50 per thousand feet for their gas. Bills were passed for the relief of the Bath and Coney Island Bridge Company; amending the Brooklyn Water Act; incorporating the Soldiers' Messenger Corps; incorporating the Atlantic Base Ball Club. The remainder of the session was spent in discussing the Registry law.

In the Assembly resolutions of thanks to GRANT and our armies were adopted. A bill was passed changing the name of the New-York Free Academy to the New-York Free College. The bill to authorize Brooklyn to borrow money was passed. The Dry Dock Railroad Bill was ordered to a third reading by 58 to 42. During the session a convention of the two Houses was held for the election of a Superintendent of Public Instruction. VICTOR M. PRICE, present incumbent, was reëlected by 87 votes to 39 for JOSEPH WARREN.

GENERAL NEWS.

Capitalists are again competing briskly with the people for the national securities, which, in view of recent "great events," and the bright prospects ahead, are regarded as the very best investments now available. The transactions in Government gold-bearing bonds at the Stock Exchange, yesterday, reached $1,423,000, including $1,320,000 worth of old and new 5-20s, which opened at 105¼, and closed firmly at 105½. The bulk of this unusually large amount was bought for a single banking firm, whose agents likewise made very heavy purchases through the commission houses on the Street. At the close, the market for all classes of national securities was quite buoyant, with a strong upward tendency. The 7-30 Currency Loan, now open to subscription at par, is selling freely. The opening day's subscriptions this week were $2,108,300, including 1,473 orders for the $50 and $100 notes of the Loan. The subscriptions to the Loan last week reached an average of $2,381,360 per day, and the orders for the $50 and $100 notes of the Loan an average of 1,652 a day.

It is rumored in Montreal that Secretary SEWARD is so well satisfied with the stand taken by the Canadian government for the suppression of border raids, that he will go no further in the demand for the extradition of the St. Albans robbers. There was some excitement in Montreal yesterday in consequence of a threat to release or rescue the robbers.

Ex-Speaker COLFAX is in Chicago, making preparations to start on the first of May upon an extended journey across the Western plains to the Pacific coast, intending to stop in Colorado and Utah long enough to post himself upon the resources and prospective development of those territories; after which, he will visit California, Oregon and Puget's Sound.

Gen. WM. H. ADAMS, a well-known citizen of Western New-York, died in Albany on Friday. He was a man of great ability, and once of large enterprise and influence, and identified with the public works of the State. He was one of the original builders of the Erie Canal, and has been a canal man since the time of DE WITT CLINTON.

The telegraph builders under Col. BULKLEY reached New-Westminster, British Columbia, on the 17th of March. Work will be commenced as soon as the snow is gone. Col. BULKLEY has gone to Sitka to confer with the Governor of Russia America.

Capt. MAFFIT, of rebel piracy notoriety, is said to be imprisoned at Havana, at the suit of GEO. E. TYLER, owner of the Shooting Star, which vessel MAFFIT recently attempted to destroy. Mr. TYLER had the pleasure of seeing the ex-pirate safely ensconced in a cell of the Morro.

Californians are becoming uneasy about the pirate Shenandoah, last heard from at Melbourne. They fear she may undertake the capture of some of our treasure steamers.

The Republican majority in Connecticut in all but six towns is 10,711. Those towns will increase it a little.

JAY COOKE received, yesterday, over $2,000,000 in subscriptions to the seven-thirties. There were 1,500 contributors of $50 and $100 each.

It is estimated that near eight thousand bales of cotton have been discovered in various portions of the City of Charleston within a few weeks.

A. S. CAMPBELL, of Bellows Falls, Vt., has just been reëlected town clerk for the 35th time.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Board of Aldermen, at their meeting yesterday, adopted a resolution appointing a joint Special Committee to make preparations for celebrating the fall of Richmond. A communication was received from the Mayor, stating that although opposed to celebrating victories gained over our fellow citizens, he would suggest the anniversary of the birthday of JEFFERSON as a fitting occasion for a celebration that would demonstrate to the Southern people that our object is a lasting amity and not subjugation. It was referred to the committee appointed under Mr. NORTON's resolution. The City Inspector was directed to annul the contract for removing dead animals from the city, and to enter into another on more favorable terms to the city.

The Board of Engineers and Foremen of the Volunteer Fire Department, at their meeting last evening, received a communication from the Aldermen, requesting them to continue on duty at present, and one from the Common Council, asking for a committee to confer with that of the Council about the Paid Fire Department Law. Such a committee was appointed, and a resolution was unanimously passed, that, although the new law outraged the feelings of the Volunteer Department, they were in duty and honor bound to continue their labors, for the sake of the citizens and their own reputation, and requesting the Common Council to test the new law in the courts.

At a special meeting of the Board of Supervisors, yesterday, Mr. FOX offered a resolution directing the Volunteer Committee to discontinue the business of recruiting at their office in the Park, and to appoint paymasters for the several Congressional Districts in this city; and directing the Comptroller to furnish the said paymasters with funds to pay bounties, on requisitions signed by the Committee on Volunteering. The resolution was lost by a vote of 7 to 3—subsequently reconsidered and laid over.

A large meeting of prominent citizens was held at the Collector's office yesterday, to make arrangements for a grand celebration, in accordance with the resolutions passed at the Wall-street meeting of Monday. Speeches were made by SAMUEL SLOAN, W. E. DODGE, S. B. CHITTENDEN, P. M. WETMORE, and others. It was determined not to have a parade, but to appoint a day of thanksgiving and rejoicing on the 20th of April, the anniversary of the great uprising of the people four years ago.

The draft was quite prosperously postponed yesterday. The drawing in the Twenty-first Ward was finished, but in the other districts the Provost-marshals were kept busy in enlisting. The whole number enlisted in the city on Monday was 105, of whom 73 were volunteers and 32 substitutes. Money from the State will, without doubt, be furnished in a day or two, and altogether the prospect is very good for avoiding conscription if reasonable pains are taken.

The Merchant will case was continued yesterday in the Supreme Court Circuit. Owing to the absence of important witnesses, very little was done in the afternoon. Judge PECKHAM made an order directing that two of the witnesses be attached for non-attendance after having been properly subpœnaed.

The Committee of the Common Council, appointed to take such action in regard to the Fire Department as may be necessary, met yesterday, and adopted a resolution requesting the Fire Department to appoint a committee to confer with them.

At a fight between the members of Fire Engine Company No. 12 and Hook and Ladder No. 18, in Second-avenue, near Fourteenth-street, on Monday night, Officer DETRICK, of the Seventeenth Ward, was knocked down and seriously injured.

JAMES CULLY was run over and killed by a Hudson River Railroad car, on Monday evening.

At the live stock markets this week the supplies of all kinds of animals, though not large, are ample for the demand. The receipts are as follows: Beeves, 4,843; cows, 214; calves, 1,749; sheep, 8,883, and swine, 5,417. The railroads are once more in good condition, bringing the stock directly through, consequently the cattle no longer have the hard and worn appearance that they have shown for some weeks past. The general quality of the cattle was very good, fully equal to last week. Prices of Beef Cattle are about two per cent. below the rates a week ago, though still high. Extras sold at 23c.@24c. ℔ ℔., estimated dressed weights, good, at 18c.@21c.; common 17c.@18c. Veal Calves are in large supply, with considerable demand, at a decline of 1c. ℔ ℔. live weight. Cows are selling a little less for poor ones, other grades about the same as last week. Sheep are in fair supply, and sell about 1c. ℔ ℔., live weight, less, and live Hogs about 1½c. ℔ ℔. less than last week.

There was rather more animation in general business yesterday. Prices, however, were quite irregular. Flour and Wheat were cheaper, as were also Cotton, Coffee, Soap, Linseed and Lard oils. Pork was dearer, influenced by an active speculative inquiry. Bacon, Beef, Lard, Tallow, Hides, Leather, Fish, Tobacco, and Wool were depressed. Sugars were more freely purchased. The freight engagements were rather more extensive.

The Stock Exchange was very active yesterday, and generally higher on Governments, Railways and Miscellaneous Stocks. Money very easy. The Gold Room steadier at 146½@147½ ℔ cent. The old Brokers of the Street speak and move with more confidence in a Spring rise than before the fall of Richmond, and with less reference to the price of Gold.

Last evening gold opened at 148¼, and closed at 147¾; the transactions were not extensive.

The Capture of Richmond—What Next?

The capture of Richmond plucks out the very heart of the rebellion. It is not enough to say that the rebel capital has been taken. Richmond bore a much more important relation to the rebellion than that term would express. It was not merely the locality where rested the rebel government—as Washington is the seat of the Federal Government;—it was the great generator of the vital force of the Confederacy. The largest city in the Confederacy, since New-Orleans came into our possession; having an inherited prestige that no other could claim; the headquarters of the principal rebel army, as well as of the rebel civil administration; its press working for the rebel cause with a vehemence and a fire, and an effectiveness incomparably beyond anything displayed elsewhere in Southern journalism; and, what is most important of all, having been so attacked and so defended from the beginning of the war, that it is associated, the world over, with the very substance of the war, and bears, as no other spot does, its "form and impress,"—Richmond came to be the very vital source of all the material energy and all the moral power of the rebellion. Its collapse is the death of the rebellion. The confederacy will hereafter exhibit no activity or sign of life, except as it is galvanized.

Thus the question of pacification is at once brought home to us. It is the part of every loyal man now to consider how the priceless fruits of our victory can be quickest realized. We have been fighting this four years' war not from passion at the Fort Sumter outrage, nor from obstinacy that holds on, when once the hand is in for the mere sake of it, nor from a love of military fame, nor because of any glittering generality or chivalrous sentiment, but for the most practical and substantial of all ends—namely, the restoration of the blessings of the Union. All this immeasurable treasure and blood has been poured out for that object absolutely and alone. Nothing else ought now to be thought of. The fall of Richmond, much as it is calculated to stir every high emotion, should be estimated with particular reference to its being turned to practical account in speeding a cordial reunion between the North and the South. It is valuable just as in proportion as we so make use of it.

The event ought to be signalized by some demonstration from our Government that shall, if possible, reawaken loyalty on the instant. Every advance made by the President toward the Southern people, so long as Richmond defied him, would have been misconstrued into a bid for a compromise. This is now impossible. The power of our government to compel submission is now as manifest as the sun. No Southern mind can be so stupid as to impute an overture of kindness now to fear, or discouragement, or any other unworthy motive. It would be recognized as a pledge of good will, and, we believe, would forthwith rouse into life a reciprocal feeling. In a great crisis like that now existing in the South, the popular will often determines with an electric quickness. The Southern temperament is peculiarly susceptible to sudden accessions of new feelings and purposes. This was marvelously exemplified in the almost instantaneous firing of the Southern heart from which the rebellion first burst. Everything is just as favorable for a sudden influx of intense loyalty now, as of the contrary spirit then. We may say, vastly more so; for in the one case the impulse sprang from the imagination only, while in the other it comes from the most terrible experiences. The movement away from the Union was a relinquishment of great prosperity; if that could be speedily accomplished, we may look for quicker time yet in the movement back to the Union, from a state of immeasurable wretchedness. At all events, we trust our government will do its best to clear the way for it.

What is wanted is not so much a bald statement to the Southern people that they can have peace and protection by repudiating the Confederacy and resuming their true allegiance, as an appeal palpitating with brotherly regard. It is no longer necessary to dwell with emphasis upon the hard truth that the government cannot and will not give peace for anything less than unconditional submission. That is already well enough understood. The submission can be had. But if we want something more than submission, if we would have genuine, ardent, whole-souled loyalty, we should invite it in language calculated to reassure and ingratiate. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, notwithstanding all the abuse heaped upon him by the rebel leaders, is known through the South as well as in the North to be a thoroughly sincere man. Words of good will from him, assurances that his policy, so far as the body of the Southern people are concerned, will be to bury the past, to remove sectional distinctions, to secure the universal enjoyment of every national blessing, would challenge confidence at once, and we verily believe it would be followed by an enthusiastic response.

If this is ever to be done, now is the golden instant. The Southern mind is now in its most impressible mood. The fall of Richmond annihilates the last lingering trust in the Confederacy. Its suddenness intensifies the sensation. Every element of the Southern nature is most keenly alive to the question, what shall be done? A recoil that should send the Southern people back, at a bound, into the full embrace of the government, would come much more naturally now than after they had sunk, bewildered and nonplussed, into sullen apathy. The hour of victory is always the hour for clemency—always the hour for the easiest winning of the hearts of the vanquished. There are leaders, as all admit, who are beyond clemency either now or hereafter; and the Administration has done most nobly in so steadfastly refusing to grant them any stipulations or proffers. But the Southern people, in the mass, are bound to us by ties which we cannot sever if we would. They are our fellow-countrymen, who must not only live, but live with us. For our own sake, as well as theirs, they must have clemency. They must not be dragged back as vassals, but welcomed back as brothers. Our anxiety for this cannot be too quickly or too fully manifested.

The Completeness of the National Victory.

The material losses inflicted upon the rebel army around Petersburgh, in men, in the equipments and munitions of war, not less than in position, have not yet been so computed that their overwhelming weight can be made at once appreciable. A careful comparison of different data gave LEE, three months ago, an army of 85,000 men. Within that period there is superabundant evidence to prove to us that this force, so formidable in numbers, and, peradventure, scarcely less formidable in its tough experience, had lost full 15,000 men. We should clearly be under, rather than over the actual number, if we set down LEE's losses, in killed and wounded, in the five day's engagements, at 10,000 more. And putting together all the returns of captured prisoners already received, we are unable, by the most moderate computation, to reduce their aggregate below 25,000. These deductions alone bring the relics of the rebel army of Virginia down to 35,000 men, without including the gangs of stragglers from that fugitive band, met with at every furlong of GRANT and SHERIDAN's pursuit. If LEE to-day has even 30,000 in his immediate command he must have found material for conscription in the line of his inglorious flight. And each succeeding sunrise can but witness not only the decline of his army in bulk, but its rapid and irreclaimable demoralization as well.

The captures of guns in the storming of the right of LEE's Petersburgh intrenchments and in the great field engagements, large as these are, represent—by accumulated testimony from every quarter of the field lately held by LEE—but a mere fraction of the war material sacrificed in the rebel flight. Not only are the lines of retreat strewed in all directions with abandoned arms of every variety and calibre, but so overwhelmingly sudden was that swoop of our cavalry around and behind the right wing of LEE's army, which gave GRANT the first signal and assurance of his victory, that there was not time left to the enemy to either use or destroy the railroad plant concentrated in Richmond, all of which was essential war material to the rebels only three days ago. Not only have we it reported on the authority of SHERIDAN—as the first experience of his pursuit of the rebels—that "the majority of the arms that were left in the hands of LEE's army are now scattered between Richmond and where his troops now are;" and that "the line of retreat is marked with artillery, ammunition, burned or charred wagons, caissons and ambulances,"—but the rolling stock of DAVIS' late military roads seems to have been abandoned as an utterly useless provision hereafter in the irregular warfare on which the remaining rebel force has fallen back.

With these material losses may be computed the loss of the best military position alike for offensive and defensive operations that remained to the Confederacy. To the value set upon that position, the countless battle-fields of Virginia, from Loudon Heights to the Rappahannock, the Chickahominy, and the Appomattox, bear grim proofs which permit neither of cavil or dispute. In that death-grapple of Sunday, around and beyond the forts at Petersburgh, the position thus cherished, thus clung to in the very agony of his desperate and hopeless situation, was abandoned by LEE, never to be retaken, till a more recreant race than ours shall control the power, and assume to uphold the honor of this Republic.

Yet, vast even almost beyond compute as are these immediate and palpable losses of the insurgent force, they cannot compare, in any rebel estimate to-day, with the overwhelming disaster which has overtaken the Confederacy as a political power. In the fall of Richmond every function it had exercised as a political combination ceased thenceforth and for all time. As an organic force it passed out of existence, and lapsed incontinently into a mere insurrection. The flight of DAVIS from Richmond put an everlasting period to the relationship of his administration to every single one of the States that adhered to his political system. His spurious machinery of legislation became thereafter a by-word for history. His Executive Departments resolved themselves into visions of things spurious that had been but should be no more. His conscription appliances, his taxing agencies, his money-printing apparatus, his foreign relations—Heaven help them!—his postal system, his military tribunals, and his libel of a Constitution—all passed away like the spectral creations of some ugly dream. And what passed among the friendly crowd of on-lookers, but the other day, for the dignity and circumstance of an organized and permanently established power, was blown in a night to the winds by the hot breath of the avenging destroyer.

Were LEE's armed bands, from the James to the Red River, twice as numerous and many times more faithful to the Confederacy than they, what compensation could it be for this utter demolition of the political structure in which the fortunes of the leading rebel gang had been staked? At best, these bands could but provide for their own sustenance and for escape from the immediate and condign punishment of the prime actors in this murderous league. At most they could play the rôle of banditti or guerrillas for a term which it would be altogether in the power of the supreme government to limit, with less exertion, probably, than has been expended on a single one out of a score of campaigns that have marked the past history of the war. With the disappearance, then, of all that gave cohesion and political vitality to this wretched Confederacy, goes all that made it formidable at home, or gave it informal recognition abroad.

Our National Finances.

In our financial column we give an official statement of the indebtedness of the nation on last Friday, the 31st of March, as compared with the figures of Oct. 31, 1864. The grand total of the debt on the 31st ult. was $2,366,955,077, showing an increase of $574,088,037 since July 5, 1864, when Secretary FESSENDEN succeeded Secretary CHASE. This increase has been at a comparatively moderate rate of $2,134,156 per day. The interest charge on the debt, March 31, was $102,836,581, including $64,016,631 in gold, and $38,819,899 in currency. This interest charge, as applied to the aggregate indebtedness, is at the low rate of $4 35 per cent. per annum.

One of the anti-Administration evening journals, in giving Secretary MCCULLOCH credit for the statement of March 31, invidiously alleged that the duty of making public the state of the national accounts, had been neglected since Oct. 31, 1864; and a kindred sheet also asserted that the statement of the 31st ult., "is the first one published since Oct. 31." Now what are the facts? On the 13th of February, of this year, in response to a letter from the Hon. Mr. PRUYN, member of Congress from this State, Secretary FESSENDEN made a formal statement of the condition of the national finances on the 1st of February. This statement was published in the telegraphic, as well as the financial columns of all the newspaper press. It was full and specific on all points; showing most conclusively that Secretary FESSENDEN had no desire either to deceive the public or to evade criticism.

The Treasury Department stands committed against any further direct issues of gold-bearing bonds. The great popularity of the 7-30 Currency Loan will enable the chief fiscal agent of the government to adhere rigidly to this programme, especially in view of the vastly improved military prospect, and the proximate close of the war. The bonds already out constitute the best investments at present available to thrifty people. They are now unusually low in price. Yesterday the United States 6 per cents of 1881 were sold at 105¼@105½, and old and new 5-20s at 105¾@106, as against 114@114½, and 111@111½, respectively, on the same day last year. Heavy purchases, especially of the 5-20s, were made, chiefly on account of a single banking-house, and in anticipation of an early rise to much higher figures. With the complete overthrow of the psuedo-Confederacy of JEFF. DAVIS and his vagabond adherents, the national credit, and its funded as well as greenback representatives, must rapidly appreciate. Sagacious capitalists are making their business arrangements accordingly. The loyal people likewise give abundant evidence of their confidence in this theory, in the eagerness and liberality with which they are buying the new series of the 7-30 Currency Loan. This popular loan and the income from internal revenue constitute the main reliance of Secretary MCCULLOCH to meet all outstanding claims on his department, and to defray the current expenses of the government. That the income from these sources is steadily increasing, is distinctly indicated by the comparisons afforded by the eminently conservative exhibit of the condition of the national finances on Friday of last week, to which we have already made reference.

A BRITISH DISCOVERY.—The Melbourne correspondent of the London Telegraph has come across a "splendid specimen of an American gentleman." He found this lusus naturæ in the person of Capt. WADDELL, of the rebel pirate Shenandoah, on board of which the correspondent was writing his puff of her master. What struck him so much in this officer was the indignation he expressed at the fate of the Florida, captured by the "rascally blackguards" of the Federal navy in Rio Janeiro. Capt. WADDELL was very emphatic and "gentlemanly" in speaking upon this subject, and intimated a very strong desire to make reprisals upon the unarmed Yankee merchantmen then lying in Melbourne Harbor; but he did not, because, said he, "the Confederates, Sir, are gentlemen, and, please God, we shall always act up to that standard!" This settled the question with the Telegraph's correspondent. He could not doubt, after that remark, that Capt. WADDELL was a "splendid specimen of an American gentleman." The Shenandoah was built in England, equipped in England, carries eight rifled Whitworth guns, of course made in England, and devotes herself to the gentlemanly business of robbing, plundering and burning unarmed American merchantmen at sea. This class of operations, and the gentlemen engaged in it, command a remarkable degree of admiration and respect from our neutral English brethren now-a-days; but they will have an account to settle for it before very long.

RECOGNITION.—It was given out a few weeks ago that the Emperor MAXIMILIAN was about to recognize JEFF. DAVIS. Now would be a good time for him to do so.

The Connecticut Election.

HARTFORD, Tuesday, April 4.

BUCKINGHAM's majority in all but six towns is 10,711; the six towns will give him about 50 more. DENNING's majority in the Second District is 2,449.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

Dispatches to the Associated Press.

ILLUMINATION OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, April 4.

Our citizens are still jubilant over the fall of Richmond and Petersburgh. The only military display during to-day was a parade of the Third and Fourth regiments of Gen. HANCOCK's new Veteran Army Corps. They were commanded by Col. MORGAN and Lieut. Cols. CYRUS and DOBBS. The troops, all honorable veterans, presented a fine appearance.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Secretary of War, the Executive Mansion, the Capitol and all the departments and other buildings, and the City Hall, were to-night illuminated, and each in a blaze of light was exhibited in its beautiful proportions. The national flag was a prominent adornment, and appropriate mottoes were conspicuously displayed. HANCOCK's headquarters were brilliant with gas and tastefully adorned with flags and colored lanterns. A band of music played for several hours. The heads of departments and other officers of the Government tastefully adorned and illuminated their residences, and many of our citizens and sojourners gave similar evidences of their rejoicing, displaying flags, mottoes, and other similar devices. The newspaper press, including correspondents for the distant papers, contributed a due share of artificial light and Stars and Stripes. The American Telegraph Office was also very tastefully illuminated and decorated with the national emblem. Pennsylvania-avenue and the principal streets were thronged with pedestrians until all the illuminating arrangements had performed their purpose. Bonfires were kindled in various parts of the city, and rockets were ignited. Washington was ablaze.

Thousands of persons of both sexes attended the public meeting at the southern portico of the Patent Office, where the word "Union" was largely prominent in flaming gas. Speeches were delivered by Secretary USHER, Judge CARTER, Senator YATES, of Illinois, Senator WILLIAMS, of Oregon.

Hon. GREEN CLAY SMITH, of Kentucky, and Vice-President JOHNSON. The last named made a long and a very interesting Union speech, in the course of which he said he could live down all the slanders which had been uttered against him. He was particularly severe on traitors, at the head of whom he placed JEFFERSON DAVIS. When he asked what should be done with him, many replied, "Hang him, hang him." To this he agreed, and applause succeeded the remark that DAVIS ought to be hanged twenty times higher than HAMAN. All traitors should be punished, as an example to those who might hereafter attempt to overthrow free government. But ours would continue to exist, in spite of traitors and foreign governments.

Other speakers addressed the meeting, and to the patriotic sentiments enunciated there were frequent enthusiastic responses of applause.

Several impromptu public meetings were held in other parts of the city.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC COMMON COUNCIL.

The City Council, last night, being incapable of transacting business, passed a resolution of adjournment, preceded by the following preamble:

"Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to give victory to our army, and thus vindicate to man the divine origin of the government in breaking down the rebellion, we return Him our sincere and devout thanks for the good news of to-day."

MAILS FOR SHERMAN'S ARMY.

An order, of which this is a copy, has been approved by Major-Gen. SHERMAN:

NEWBERN, N. C., March 30, 1865.

All mails for officers and soldiers in the army now with Major-Gen. SHERMAN, will, after this date, be sent to Fortress Monroe, Va., for distribution. No mail for civilians will be delivered, unless addressed to the care of some officer to whom they are personally known.

RECRUITING IN RICHMOND.

Major TAGGART, of the Bureau of Colored Troops, left to-day for Richmond, to establish in that city a branch of his office, and facilitate the organization of companies from among the colored recruits.

FIRST CLEARANCE FOR RICHMOND.

The propeller Rebecca Barton, Capt. SKELLINGER, left this afternoon with a cargo of stores for the Medical and Engineers' Department, bound for Richmond, being the first Union vessel that has cleared for that port since the breaking out of the war.

POST-OFFICES TO BE RE-ESTABLISHED.

Immediate measures will be taken to re-establish the post-offices in Richmond and Petersburgh.

ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED.

Several vessels have arrived here to-day, bringing about 1,000 of the wounded from the late battles. Others will arrive to-morrow.

TO TICKET-OF-LEAVE MEN.

An Order from Secretary Seward.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, April 4.

The following was promulgated by the Secretary of State to-day:

To all whom these presents may concern:

Whereas, for some time past evil disposed persons have crossed the borders of the United States, or entered their ports by sea from countries where they are tolerated, and have committed capital felonies against the property and life of American citizens, as well in the cities as in the rural districts of the country:

Now, therefore, in the name and by the authority of the President of the United States, I do hereby make known that a reward of one thousand dollars will be paid at this department, for the capture of each of such offenders, upon his conviction by a civil or military tribunal, to whomsoever shall arrest and deliver such offenders into the custody of the civil or military authorities of the United States, and the like reward will be paid upon the same terms for the capture of any such persons so entering the United States, whose offences shall be committed subsequently to the publication of this notice. A reward of five hundred dollars will be paid upon conviction, for the arrest of such persons who shall have aided and abetted officers of the class before named within the territory of the United States.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the [L. S.] Department of State, at Washington, this 4th day of April, A. D., 1865.
WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

THE BORDER RAID TROUBLE.

Excitement in Montreal—Threat to Rescue the Raiders—Rumor that Secretary Seward has Suspended Further Proceedings on the Demand for Extradition.

MONTREAL, Tuesday, April 4.

Much excitement prevails here at the threatened attempt to rescue the raiders.

It is rumored that a letter has been received from Secretary SEWARD, declaring that, in view of the action taken by the Canadian Government for conspiracy and breach of neutrality, the United States Government would go no further with the demand for extradition. Further proceedings will take place in Upper Canada, as the plots are known all to originate there.

Fire in Adams, N. Y.

ADAMS, Jefferson Co., N. Y., Tuesday, April 4.

About 4 o'clock this afternoon a fire broke out in a livery stable in the rear of Whipple Block, and destroyed thirteen buildings. The contents of most of the stores were removed. Several of the buildings were of little value, and probably most of the loss is covered by insurance.

The Seven-Thirty Loan.

PHILADELPHIA, Tuesday, April 4.

JAY COOKE reports the sale of the seven-thirties to-day at $2,875,800. The largest Western subscription was $200,000, from Pittsburgh; and the largest Eastern, $110,000, from New-York. There were also 1,500 individual subscriptions of $50 and $100.

---

From New-Orleans.

CAIRO, Tuesday, April 4.

New-Orleans dates of the 27th ult. have been received. In cotton, there was little inquiry. No sales; market dull.

Municipal Election.

SCHENECTADY, Tuesday, April 4.

At the charter election held in this city to-day, ANDREW MCMULLEN, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, was elected by 450 majority.

THE DRAFT.

Recruiting Very Brisk—A Fair Prospect of no more Drafting—The Drawing Finished in the Twenty-first Ward.

The aspect of the drafting question, yesterday, was far less unpromising than on any previous day. The victories in Virginia induce a notion, by no means without reason, that enlistment now is much more like an engagement to take promenade in blue at a very fair rate of wages, and much less like a covenant with death than heretofore. The one year plan of the County Committee is also a good one, and largely economizes the funds. The subscriptions to the county loan continue to come in, though to be sure, not without some effort. The repayment from the State of bounty money, advanced by the county, is, if not formally agreed in, yet reasonably sure to be made within a few days. The efforts of the ward organizations are kept up with considerable effect.

In consequence of all these causes together, there was in fact no drafting whatever in the city yesterday, except to complete it in the Twenty-first Ward, where it had already begun. There was, moreover, a supply of money at the office of each of the District Provost-Marshals, Supervisor BLUNT having furnished them with $3,000 each, and in one at least (the Seventh, Capt. WAGNER'S,) money was also furnished by citizens of the ward. Thus, Capt. WAGNER enlisted in all, up to three o'clock, sixteen men, and rejected about as many; for about half of those who apply are unable to pass the Surgeon's examination, or are mere boys. At the Park about sixty in all were enlisted.

The number enlisted in the city on Monday, the 3d inst., was in all 105; of whom 73 were volunteers and 32 substitutes. In the order of size of respective contributions the six districts stood thus: Fourth, 35 men; Sixth, 22; Seventh, 18; Eighth, 12; Fifth, 10; Ninth, 8.

As no less than twenty-two different papers must be made out and signed after the reception of a volunteer, the enlistment of an average of fifteen men a day gives constant employment to the attachés of District Provost-Marshal's office, and prevents the immediate enforcement of the draft. Should the business prove less active to-day, the drafting will, however take place, and the quota of the Eleventh Ward be filled.

Yesterday was the appearance day for conscripts in the Fourth District, but there were, we believe, no compliances with the notice. It is understood that the examining and mustering of recruits is the first business of the Provost-Marshal, but that if this does not keep him occupied, Capt. EHRHARDT has orders to go and look up the delinquents.

A noticeable resolution was introduced into the Board of Supervisors yesterday by Supervisor Fox, which will be found elsewhere reported, with the proceedings of that body, and which lies over for consideration. The resolution is in substance, that the enlisting which is done by the Committee at the Park is just so much work taken away from the Provost-Marshals, and consequently so much done towards securing a draft, by increasing the risk of their being left idle, and that as the men might just as well go to the various district headquarters, the Committee be directed for the present to simply oversee the expenditure of the money in their charge, and to let the district Provost-Marshals do all the enlisting.

Drafted Men—Twenty-first Ward.

The following is the list of names drawn yesterday in the Twenty-first Ward, completing the work there. The whole number drawn is 334, and it is claimed that credits justly due the ward reduce the actual demand upon it to only about 150:

Board of Aldermen.

THE FALL OF RICHMOND—MESSAGES FROM THE MAYOR—REMOVAL OF DEAD ANIMALS FROM THE CITY.

The board met at 1 P. M. yesterday, Mr. JONES in the chair.

Mr. NORTON offered a preamble and resolution tendering the thanks of the Common Council to the generals, officers and soldiers of our army for our recent glorious victories, and appointing a joint special committee of five members of each board to devise some appropriate manner of celebrating the fall of Richmond—the Chamber of Commerce and other public bodies to be afforded facilities for cooperating with the committee.

The resolution was adopted without debate, and the President appointed Messrs. Norton, Farley, Ryers, Jeremiah and Van Voorhis, to serve on such committee.

A communication was received from the Finance Department, showing a balance in the Treasury, March 31, of $857,597 14.

The following communication was received from the Mayor:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW-YORK, April 4.

To the Honorable the Common Council:

GENTLEMEN: Your honorable body, in common with a large portion of our fellow-citizens, desire to celebrate the successes recently obtained by the Federal arms. I have on a former occasion expressed myself opposed on principle to the celebration of victories gained over our fellow-citizens, as calculated to embitter and alienate those affections and good will it should be our object to gain. Can we not, however, join in a general expression of popular opinion, free from all displays of vain glory, or exhibitions of selfish triumph, and such as will tend to reconcile the people of the Southern States to a renewal of their former political relations with us, under which we and they were once so happy and prosperous?

A manifestation on our part of a sincere desire to submit to the great bond of political union, as embodied in the constitution, to restore the bulwarks of personal freedom now thrown down by military power, to disavow the cruel policy of confiscation and vengeance, and to reëstablish the integrity and powers of the State Governments from which alone we can reasonably hope to enjoy the blessings of liberty and transmit them to our posterity, would be most appropriate at this time and under these circumstances.

I would suggest the anniversary of the birth of JEFFERSON, the immortal author of the Declaration of Independence, as a fitting occasion for a celebration such as I think would demonstrate to the Southern people that our objects are fraternity and lasting amity, not war and subjugation.

The recent ovation, indorsed by your honorable body, in consequence of the taking of Charleston and Savannah, was fixed on a day which served a double purpose. While ostensibly based on the capture of those cities, it gave eclat to the success of a political party in the inauguration of President LINCOLN. But the 13th day of April brings with its associations dear to the lovers of constitutional liberty, North and South. It is tainted by no sectional feelings and animosities, based on geographical lines of separation, and if observed in a spirit of true magnanimity and generous forbearance, it may be received by the people of the Southern States as the happy augury of an era of renewed affection and good will—the rainbow of peace on the flying clouds of fratricidal war and desolation.

C. GODFREY GUNTHER, Mayor

Mr. NORTON moved that the message be returned to the Mayor without the approval of the board.

The motion, which was seconded by Mr. SHANNON, was adopted.

Mr. FARLEY moved to reconsider the vote, and the message was then referred to the Committee appointed under Mr. NORTON'S resolution.

A resolution directing the City Inspector to annul the contract with JOHN GREEN for removing dead animals from the city limits, at a cost of $18,000 per annum, and to form a new contract with the Long Island Bone Laboratory, $15,000 per annum, was adopted.

The board then adjourned to Thursday next.

LAW REPORTS.

Criminal Business.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

Before Recorder Hoffman.

Assistant-District-Attorney Robert C. Hutchings appeared for the people, yesterday, and called the case of Mary Reedy for trial.

The prisoner pleaded guilty to petit larceny, the indictment showing that she had stolen a dress from a fellow-boarder in a Howard-street den, but by complainant's own statements it appeared that the property was worth less than $25. Prisoner was sent to the penitentiary for four months.

Patrick Cowdin was tried for mayhem, the indictment charging him with assaulting one Michael Sheehan, on St. Patrick's night, and biting off a portion of his nose. The evidence showed that the complainant, the prisoner, and their mutual friends, were celebrating the day in a festal manner, terminating the festivities with a free fight, in which Sheehan was worsted and lost the end of his nose. Three witnesses for the prosecution swore that the prisoner struck Sheehan first. Three witnesses for the defence testified that Sheehan struck the prisoner first. The jury gave the prisoner the benefit of the doubts thrown on the testimony for the prosecution, and acquitted him.

Francis Huber was tried for a felonious assault. John Quay, the complainant, testified that he was coming home from the McClellan ratification meeting on the 17th of September last, when he went into a lager-bier saloon in Hester-street. After taking his lager the complainant commenced to boast of the immense size of the McClellan meeting. This brought on a dispute between the witness and several Germans that were present, one of whom, the prisoner, stabbed the complainant. Several witnesses for the defence testified that the complainant attacked Huber first, struck him and drew a pistol, threatening his life. Prisoner then struck him with a pen-knife. The prisoner was acquitted, and the court adjourned.

The Merchant Will Case in Court—A Conflict of Testimony—$100,000 Involved.

SUPREME COURT—CIRCUIT.

Before Judge Peckham and a Jury.

Charlotte A. Conover et al., Appellants, vs. Selina A. Cunningham et al., Respondents.—This action, now on trial, is an appeal from a decision of the Surrogate of this county, and is brought for the purpose of testing the validity of a will, alleged to have been made by Wm. H. Merchant. On account of the wealth of Mr. Merchant, his remarkably sudden death, and the further fact that two wills have been found, and the contents to some extent made public, the trial excites much interest. Mr. Merchant's demise occurred on the 12th of March, 1861, at the age of about 35 years. He resided in this city, and on that day had been on a visit to some friends in Gates-avenue, Brooklyn; in the evening he came down on a car to Fulton ferry, with the intention of crossing over to the city; as he was in the act of alighting at the ferry-house, he fell down in a fit of apoplexy and expired almost immediately. At the time of his death he was worth from $100,000 to $150,000. He was unmarried. Many of our readers will remember the efforts which, through the Surrogate's and other courts, were soon afterward made to effect a proper disposition of the property.

A will bearing date the 27th day of September, 1859, executed by Mr. Merchant, and witnessed by Wm. F. T. Chapman, of No. 189 Spring-street, and David Mahony, of No. 91 Madison-street, was produced before Surrogate West, the then officer in that department. This will, upon the usual proofs, was duly admitted to probate. In and by the terms of it, Charlotte Ann Souza, who has since been married to Mr. Conover, and who is now the principal contestant, was made sole executrix. By the terms of that instrument the testator bequeated to her, all his real and personal property after deducting a bequest of $20,000 to Miss Minna A. Greensward. Miss Souza was, as appears from this will, engaged to be married to Mr. Merchant, Miss Greensward, has, since the proving of the first will, been married to Mr. Wilson, and these parties are joined in the case as litigants. Some time after the proceedings above mentioned had been taken, a second will was brought to light. It bears date the 11th day of March, 1861—the day before Mr. Merchant died. By the terms of it, all the real and personal estate of deceased are bequeathed to his two sisters, who are next of kin and the only heirs at law, Mrs. Mary Eliza Pratt and Selina A. Cunningham. The two ladies in possession, to wit: Mrs. Cunningham and Miss Greensward, (since Mrs. Wilson,) refused to surrender their rights and property—as they called them—and hence a long course of litigation. The second will, it is said, was executed at Lovejoy's Hotel, on the day before Mr. Merchant died, and was witnessed by John L. Harley, of No. 468 Hudson-street, and J. T. Brown, of No. 118 Varick-street.

Mr. Levi S. Chatfield, who appeared on behalf of Mrs. Cunningham, &c., in opening the case, said that there was about the sum of $120,000 involved; that the father of the deceased had left his whole property among his three children, to wit: the deceased—Mr. Merchant—and the two sisters of the latter; that deceased was, in his life-time, a very peculiar man; he would often sponge and steal legal advice from lawyers, and was very seldom willing to pay for knowledge which be gained from the legal profession. The counsel then went on to say that a great cry had been made by interested parties, that the second will was a forgery. Through the public press and otherwise, an attempt had been made to create a public opinion against the interests of his clients. He even charged that some of the judicial officers of this city had been tampered with; witnesses had been tampered with, and some of them frightened to such an extent that they were afraid to appear in court. The only ground which his opponents had for contesting this case was, that the second will was a forgery, but it would turn out on this trial that Mr. Merchant, in his last will and testament, made on the day before his death, had left all his real and personal property to his only relatives, two sisters residing in Brooklyn, and that he had not bequeathed it to strangers as claimed by the other side.

Mr. R. A. Redding testified that in February, 1862, he received from Mr. D. B. Clarke, who did Mr. Merchant's legal business prior to his death, a note, which informed witness that Clarke had in his possession a parcel belonging to the deceased; witness went for the parcel, and after paying Clarke $50, for legal services rendered to Mr. Merchant, he took the parcel (a box done up in paper) away; witness opened the box, and there he found the second will, about which so much has been said.

Mr. D. B. Clarke, sworn, said he had known Mr. Merchant for some time; had been a practicing lawyer, a Judge and a member of Assembly; that Mr. Merchant had left a parcel with him some months previous to his sending a note to Mr. Redding; that this parcel was not out of his possession till he delivered it to Mr. Redding; meanwhile it was in his book-case; he had done business with Mr. Merchant, and Mr. Merchant owed him money; the $50 he was paid was less than he thought due him.

On his cross-examination he said: He had been a police magistrate in 1864 by appointment of Governor Seymour; he knew Harley, one of the witnesses to the will, but not his handwriting; he was not intimate with him; witness lived in Bloomingdale in 1837, but did not know Harley when he (witness) was selling milk; he was in the habit of reading all the daily papers, but did not see any of the matters connected with Mr. Merchant's death or will till a day or two before he wrote the note to Mr. Redding; the money due him was for advice; Mr. Merchant had been in the habit of consulting him on an average once a week, and had once paid him $5; witness had, to his sorrow, been a politician; does very little legal business; derives an income from his son; had had a good many papers of Mr. Merchant's, which he did not give up; he had not read them all; there might have been a will among them.

John S. Harley testified that he was one of the witnesses to the second will; on the 11th of March, 1861, he went to Mr. Merchant's place in Park Row; he was well acquainted with Mr. Merchant in his life-time; Mr. Brown, another intimate friend coming along about the same time, Mr. Merchant requested him to go inside Lovejoy's Hotel and witness a paper; witness and Brown witnessed and signed a paper which Mr. Merchant said was his will; the will was not signed in his presence, but Mr. Merchant stated that that was his signature.

On the cross-examination witness said that he was able to recollect the exact day by means of a suit with which he was connected; witness was a lawyer and tried suits in the Marine and District Courts; he had made motions in higher courts; he did not hear of Merchant's death until 1862. The case is still on.

For Mrs. Conover, Messrs. Pierrepont, Stanly Longdell & Fullerton; for respondents, Levi S. Chatfield, Esq.

HEARING RESTORED BY ONE APPLICATION OF DR. VON EISENBERG'S ÆSTHETICO-NEURALGICON.

NEW-YORK, March 10.

I have been induced, by the great number of certificates continually published in favor of Dr. Von Eisenberg's skill, to apply to him for advice concerning my deafness of many years' standing. I placed myself under his care, and to my utmost delight he made me hear perfectly well by a single painless application of Dr. Von Eisenberg's "Æsthetico-Neuralgicon." I have great pleasure in being able to state that his skill in restoring hearing surpasses anything I ever saw or heard of. His attention to the patient is highly commendable.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either; and any preparation that will effectually remove them WITHOUT INJURING THE TEXTURE OR COLOR OF THE SKIN, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

For sale in New-York by DEMAS BARNES & CO., No. 21 Park-row; McKESSON & ROBBINS, No. 91 Fulton-st.; DUDLEY & STAFFORD, No. 69 Beekman-st., and FRAZER & LEE, No. 20 Beekman-st.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEW-YORK.

Great battles have taken place. Great victories have been won! To the God of battles, the Lord of Hosts, be all the praise! But thousands have fallen! The shouts of triumph are mingled with the wails of the wounded and the dying. The cry for help comes anew. It may be the last appeal. To meet the fearful emergency, men and means are wanted.

Let there be a thank offering to the Lord!

Let it be prompt, free, and full!

Funds may be sent to JAMES M. BROWN, Esq., Treasurer, No. 56 Wall-st., or to NATHAN BISHOP, Esq., No. 30 Bible House.

A SOUND INVESTMENT.
E. C. STEDMAN & CO.,
No. 57 Exchange-place, invite the attention of their customers and the public to the advertisement, elsewhere published, of

THE SUGAR CREEK PETROLEUM COMPANY.

A limited portion of this really valuable stock is open to subscription at our office. We desire to state that:

1. The capital of this company is not "watered," and does not equal in amount the value of the property on which it is based.

2. Ten wells are going down in the choicest Sugar Creek heavy oil district. The capital stock is so small that even fifteen barrels of oil per diem will pay handsome monthly dividends, with gold at par.

3. The projectors of this company have formed it on an honest basis, and look for their profit to a rise in the market value of the stock.

4. Only a few thousand shares will be sold.

This is the only company for which we have ever opened subscription books and confidently recommended the stock to our cusustomers; and we do so for the reasons above-named. Maps and further information can be obtained by calling on or addressing

PROPERTY OF THE COMPANY.

No. 1.—THIRTY-THREE ACRES of land in fee simple, known as the Geo. W. Tarr Farm, on Cherry Tree Run. THIRTY (30) WELLS are under lease. Royalty one-quarter oil, WHICH BELONGS TO THIS INTEREST. Fourteen acres, not leased, FOR WHICH A BONUS AND ONE-HALF OIL CAN READILY BE OBTAINED.

No. 2.—SIX leases on Dempsey Farm, Cherry Tree Run. Entire working interest in each. The company was advised March 10 that a 40-barrel well was struck just above this property, and a 150-barrel well on the next farm to it. In consequence of the striking of these wells, property cannot now be bought in their vicinity for TEN TIMES the cost of these leases to the Company.

No. 3.—One-eighth (⅛) all the oil, free interest, in lease No. 12, McFate Farm, Cherry Run. March 6, well was struck on this lease, now yielding ONE HUNDRED BARRELS.

No. 4.—Three-seventh working interest in each of three leases on Cherry Run, near the "Good Refinery," below the Humboldt Works. A fine well has just been struck adjoining this interest.

No. 5.—One-eighth working interest in one acre, just below the Reed Wells, on Cherry Run. Well now over FIVE HUNDRED FEET DOWN. Will be tested in a few days.

No. 6.—Five-sixteenth working interest in lease B, on Smith Farm, Cherry Run. One well to be put down free of further cost, and one-sixteenth of this interest tested for one month free of expense. This lease adjoins the Mackey well. Well under contract.

No. 7.—One-fourth working interest in lease No. 29, Smith Farm, Cherry Run, (at end of the old barn, and next well to the Grocery, now the largest on the Run.) This well also to be put down free of further expense, and one-sixteenth of the interest tubed and tested one month free of cost. WELL NOW DOWN 520 FEET, WITH A VERY FINE SHOW OF OIL.

No. 8.—Three-sixteenths in the lease, and the Dalton well on Smith farm, Cherry Run. NOW A SEVENTY-FIVE BARREL WELL AND IMPROVING. Another well to go down on same lease.

No. 9.—Three-sixteenths working interest in lease No. 12, Widow McClintock farm, Oil Creek: WELL NOW PRODUCING ABOUT FIFTY BARRELS DAILY AND GAINING; it is a new well.

No. 10.—One-eighth working interest in lease No. 49, Widow McClintock Farm, Oil Creek; one well down—ABOUT TWENTY BARRELS PER DAY; another started on same lease.

No. 11.—One-half working interest in lease on Cherry Run, just above Humboldt's refinery. Size of lot 90 feet by 150 feet.

No. 12.—One-eighth working interest in one acre lease and the Buffalo well, on the Blood farm, Oil Creek. THIS WELL FLOWS SIX BARRELS PER DAY.

No. 13.—All the working interest in lease No. 2, Prather reserve, Cherry Run; contains about one acre.

No. 14.—One-eighth working interest in lease on Widow McClintock farm, Oil Creek; well just struck THIRTY BARRELS, and increasing.

No. 15.—One-eighth working interest in lease on Dan Rynd farm, Cherry-tree Run, near the Tarr farm; a choice lot—three-quarters of an acre.

No. 16.—Three-eighth working interest in the Rickett's well, on the Rickett's farm, Cherry Run, above Plamer. Lease one acre—royalty half oil.

No. 17.—ONE HUNDRED AND TEN ACRES of land in fee simple, on Holeman's Run, NEAR THE UNITED STATES PETROLEUM COMPANY'S WELL, No. 22. This lays well for oil, and is considered very valuable territory.

No. 18.—One-eighth working interest in the New-Grocery well, and lease on Smith's farm, on Cherry Run. This well is now yielding TWO HUNDRED AND EIGHTY BARRELS PER DAY, and it is thought by the most experienced oil men, will shortly be a 300 barrel well.

TO INVESTERS IN PETROLEUM STOCKS.

THIS COMPANY OFFERS THE FOLLOWING INDUCEMENTS, VIZ.:

1st. An ample working capital.

2d. Large properties now yielding, and its new interests being rapidly developed.

3d. Prospects of extraordinary returns from its Cherry Tree Run properties.

4th. Small capital on which to pay dividends.

5th. Property greatly increased in value since purchase.

6th. A present income of $480 daily.

It is in aggregate the most valuable oil investment yet offered for public subscription.

THE KING OF INVESTMENTS—OIL! The subscribers are authorized to sell a few ORIGINAL SHARES in a new OIL COMPANY about to be formed on choice and select land. Full particulars sent, on application to GEO. N. TOWNSEND & CO., No. 123½ South 4th-st., Philadelphia.

TO CAPITALISTS AND OIL COMPANIES. CHOICE OIL LANDS AND WELLS—A few excellent parcels, on Cherry Run, Pithole Creek, Alleghany River, Sugar Creek, French Creek, Sandy River, Cherry Tree Run, and other favorite locations in Venango and surrounding counties, may be had on the most reasonable terms, by applying to JOSEPH H. JACKSON, No. 48 Liberty-st., New-York, or to C. G. PRATT, United States Hotel, Franklin, Penn.

CHOICE OIL LANDS IN WESTERN VIRGINIA.—The subscribers offer for sale, 6,000 acres of excellent oil land, situated on the Little Kanahwa River and its tributaries, in Calhoun and Wirt Counties, West Virginia, in quantities, from one to one thousand or more acres, to suit purchasers. This is very desirable oil territory, pretty thoroughly tested by adjacent borings, and rich in oil and minerals, as well as in good timber and soil. It would form an excellent basis for several large or many small oil companies. For further information, or for the purchase of all or any part of this land, address WILSON KING, Erie, Penn., or Rev. D. H. A. McLEAN, Beaver, Beaver Co., Penn.

The property of this company consists of the fee simple of the valuable Steadwell or FULLER FARM, near the junction of Wolf Run and Sugar Creek, Jackson Township, Venango County, Penn.

It embraces 122 acres of heavy-oil boring territory in the richest portion of the now famous Sugar Creek Valley. Ten wells are going down. There is room for five hundred more. The Superintendent is constantly applied to for leases, but will sink other wells solely for the company's account and retain the entire oil product.

With this intent the shares constituting the WORKING CAPITAL are now open to subscription for a short time only. The trustees will refrain from lengthy advertisement of the prospects of the SUGAR CREEK PETROLEUM COMPANY, and content themselves with pointing to the features which distinguish it from many enterprises of the day.

The stock is not "watered." The projectors depend for their profits solely on a rise in its market price. But a few thousand shares will be sold, and these on the only honest basis, viz., at their par value. The company's property is worth more than the entire capital stock. The latter is so small, indeed, that even a ten-barrel well will pay for regular monthly dividends. The Sugar Creek Wells are but half as expensive, and the oil is twice as valuable as the wells and oil either of Oil Creek or Cherry Run.

Prospectuses and maps can be obtained and subscriptions effected by application to CHARLES G. JUDSON, No. 84 Chambers-st.; CHARLES GOULD, No. 58 Wall-st.; J. L. EVERITT, Broadway Bank, or to either of the trustees.

2. Upon voyage risks upon freight, a return of twenty per cent.
3. Upon time risks upon freight, and upon voyage and time risks upon hulls, a return of ten per cent.

Such privilege, however, being confined to persons and firms, the aggregate of whose premiums upon such policies earned and paid during the year, shall amount to the sum of one hundred dollars.

Premiums paid in gold will be entitled to the above returns in gold.

AMUSEMENTS.

WINTER GARDEN.

WEDNESDAY AND EVERY NIGHT,
THE GRAND MILITARY DRAMA,
illustrative of
CAMP SCENES, AND
THE TRIALS OF A SOLDIER'S LIFE,
by S. R. Fisk, entitled
CORPORAL CARTOUCHE,
nightly received with
UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM AND DELIGHT.
IT ACHIEVED A VERY DECIDED SUCCESS, EXCITING THE INTEREST OF A DEMONSTRATIVE AUDIENCE, AND AT TIMES ELICITING THE MOST VOCIFEROUS APPLAUSE.—New-York Herald.
WITH ITS
BRILLIANT COSTUMES,
ITS BEAUTIFUL ORIGINAL MUSIC, by Robert Stoepel.
And its SPLENDID SCENERY, by Witham.

The scenery, by the very able artist of the establishment, Mr. WITHAM, IS SPLENDID. THE BRILLIANCY OF THE FIRST SCENE—WITH THE DISTANT VIEW OF THE CITY OF ULM—IS ONLY EQUALED BY THE PICTURESQUE CHARM OF THAT WHICH SUCCEEDS IT—THE VILLAGE OF ST. LAURENT. THE LATTER, INDEED, IS IN ALL RESPECTS THE BEST EXAMPLE OF SCENE PAINTING WE HAVE EVER SEEN ON THE NEW-YORK STAGE.—New-York Times.

CORPORAL CARTOUCHE,
A SOLDIER OF NAPOLEON,
MR. HENRY PLACIDE.

MR. PLACIDE'S PERFORMANCE LAST SATURDAY EVENING ESTABLISHED THE SUCCESS OF THE PLAY. IT WAS REMARKABLE FOR ITS EARNEST FEELING AND ITS THOROUGH SINCERITY AND DEVOTION. THE AUDIENCE TESTIFIED THE UTMOST APPRECIATION OF HIS ACTING AT EVERY POINT. HE WAS ENERGETICALLY APPLAUDED THROUGHOUT—NOT LESS IN THE JAUNTY SCENES OF THE OPENING ACT THAN IN HIS PORTRAYAL OF MUTE ANGUISH AND DESPAIR TOWARD THE CLOSE, AND WAS TWICE COMPLIMENTED BY A CALL BEFORE THE CURTAIN.—New-York Tribune.

The other characters by Messrs. J. G. HANLEY, WALCOT, CLARKE, KEMBLE MASON, BORROUGHS, EBERLE; Misses ADA CLIFTON, MARY CARR; Mesdames SEDLEY BROWN, and WALCOT, Jr.
Doors open at 7¼; commence at 7¾.

BROADWAY THEATRE.

CROWDED EVERY NIGHT.
THIRTY-FIRST WEEK OF
MR. JOHN E. OWENS,
4TH WEEK OF HIS UNEQUALED PERSONATION OF CALEB PLUMMER.
Now attracting the greatest audiences of the season, and winning from judgments of "wisest censure" unstinted praises as
THE PERFECTION OF ART.
EVERY NIGHT AND ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON, DOT
OR THE CRICKET ON THE HEARTH.
SATURDAY AFTERNOON, April 8, at 2 o'clock,
AN OWENS' MATINEE.
Seats for the matinée secured now.

PATRIOT ORPHAN HOME.

THE FOLLOWING "OPINION" IS PUBLISHED for the information of the public:
RICHARD J. DODGE,
Brevet Lieut.-Col. U. S. A., A. A. P. M. Gen.

OPINION.
ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OFFICE, March 24, 1865.

SIR: In your letter of the 22d inst., you ask whether the 14th section of the act approved 3d March, 1865, entitled "An Act to amend the several Acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes," is applicable to the call for troops made by the President 19th December, 1864. The section is as follows:

"That hereafter all persons mustered into the military or naval service, whether as volunteers, substitutes, representatives or otherwise, shall be credited to the State, and to the ward, township, precinct, or other enrollment sub-district where such persons belong by actual residence, (if such persons have an actual residence within the United States,) and where such persons were or shall be enrolled, (if liable to enrollment;) and it is hereby made the duty of the Provost-Marshal-General to make such rules and give such instructions to the several Provost-Marshals, Boards of Enrollment and Mustering Officers, as shall be necessary for the faithful enforcement of the provisions of this section, to the end that fair and just credit shall be given to every section of the country: Provided, That in any call for troops hereafter, no county, town, township, ward, precinct, or election district, shall have credit except for men actually furnished on said call, or the preceding call, by said county, town, township, ward, precinct, or election district, and mustered into the naval or military service on the quota thereof."

The 27th section makes the act take effect from and after its passage.

The 14th section furnishes the rule by which men, when mustered into the military or naval service, are to be credited to the various localities from which they may come.

The 15th section furnishes the rule by which credits are to be given when computing for the quotas of the various draft districts. But the 15th section has a proviso which expressly prohibits the application of the rule therein given to the pending draft. From the fact that there is no such proviso to the 14th section, it would seem that it was intended credits should be given when mustering in under the pending call.

But the 14th section has a proviso, the peculiar language of which would, at first blush, seem to favor the idea that Congress intended that the rule, in that section prescribed, should be future to the pending call, and not future to the passage of the act. That proviso declares that credit shall not be given, except for men actually furnished on said call or the pending call. The manifest purpose of the proviso is to limit the time within which a credit may be demanded.

This section must be regarded as taking effect from the passage of the act, unless such a construction is inconsistent with, or forbidden by, other parts of the act.

As is stated in my opinion to you of the 13th March, it appears from the face of this act, that at the time it was passed, there was a pending draft under a call for troops in December, 1864, and it is carefully provided that nothing in the act shall operate to postpone the pending draft, or interfere with the quotas assigned therefor. Now, the rule for giving credits at the time of mustering in, will not postpone the present draft or interfere with the quotas assigned therefor.

It seems to me that there is nothing in the act that prevents the application of the 14th section to the present draft, unless it may be the proviso thereto. It was intended by that proviso simply to limit the time within which credits might be claimed, and not to postpone the application of the rule of credits, when mustering in, to future calls.

I am of the opinion that the 14th section of said Act is applicable to the call for troops made by the President on the 19th December, 1864.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES SPEED,
Attorney-General.
Hon. EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

CHICKERING & SONS

MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, No. 652 BROADWAY.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.

Mr. GOTTSCHALK'S constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO-FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

Messrs. CHICKERING & SONS are Sole Agents for the celebrated Alexandre Organs for the United States.

STEINWAY & SONS

GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others is, that the firm is composed of five practical piano-forte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms Nos. 71 and 73 East 14th-st., between Union-square and Irving-place, New-York.

THE WEBER PIANO-FORTE

Is admitted the best Piano-forte made, because the maker, besides being a practical mechanic of long experience, is also a thorough musician, thus combining advantages possessed by no other manufacturer in the United States. Such is the testimony of S. B. Mills, Robert Heller, Geo. F. Bristow, Wm. Mason, C. Jerome Hopkins, Charles Fradel, Max Maretzek, Carl Anschutz, John Zundel, Maurice Strakosch, Giovani Sconcia, Edward and Henry Mollenhauer, Louis Schreiber, Emil and Fred Brandeis, W. R. Bassford, Theo. Moelling, and every good musician in the United States. Warerooms No. 155 West Broadway, near Canal-st.

ESTABLISHED IN 1829.

RAVEN & BACON, Piano Manufacturers, No. 135 Grand-st., near Broadway, New-York. Our pianos have been favorably known in this market for nearly forty years, and by the constant introduction of improvements they are kept up to the age in every respect. Purchasers will do well to examine our instruments and prices before making their selections. Descriptive circulars sent by mail. Storage for Pianos.

THE HORACE WATERS GRAND SQUARE and upright Pianos, Melodeon, Harmoniums and Æolian Organs, wholesale and retail; to let and rent allowed if purchased. Monthly payments received for the same. Second-hand Pianos at bargains from $60 to $225. Sheet Music, a little soiled, at 1½ cent per page. Pianist in attendance to try new music. Factory and warerooms, No. 481 Broadway. Cash paid for second-hand Pianos.

MASON & HAMLIN'S CABINET ORGANS.—THIRTY GOLD OR SILVER MEDALS, or other first premiums, have been awarded to us within a few years for THE BEST instruments of this class. Over two hundred of the most distinguished musicians of New-York and other principal cities declare that the instruments of our make excel all others. See particulars in circulars. Salesrooms, New-York, No. 596 Broadway.
MASON BROTHERS.

The following blank form of receipt is much in use among the Insurance Companies in this city, and so used without being appropriately stamped, in violation of the pertinent provisions of the Internal Revenue Law:

OFFICE OF THE —— INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW-YORK, ——, 186—.

To ——, Agent:

We are this day in receipt of your report for —— with $—— inclosed.*

If, on examination, it is not found satisfactory, we will further advise you.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

*We have seen this receipt, varied in form (obviously with a view to an evasion of the requirements of the law) so as to read, "We are this day in receipt of your report for ——, with inclosures." Even in this form it is unquestionably an acknowledgement of value received, and as such is unmistakably illegal, unless properly stamped.—[ED. TIMES.

The attention of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue having been called to this practice, Acting Commissioner ROLLINS (in the absence of Commissioner LEWIS) rendered the following decision against its legality:

OFFICIAL.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, WASHINGTON, March 21, 1865.

SIR: In answer to your letter of March 9, I have to say: The inclosed form of a receipt given by the —— Insurance Company to the agents of the company, being undoubtedly given as a receipt for money, it is subject to stamp duty as such, requiring a two-cent stamp when the amount for which the receipt is given exceeds twenty dollars.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) E. A. ROLLINS, Acting Commissioner.

The Greenback issues of the Government, which are made Legal Tender for their face value, have scarcely varied in the aggregate since October. The figures are as follows:

| | Oct. 31. | Dec. 31. | March 31. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Greenbacks | $433,160,569 | $433,160,569 | $433,160,469 |
| Five ℘ cent. do. | 120,519,110 | 105,675,049 | 69,522,350 |
| Six ℘ cent. do. | 102,329,680 | 111,479,370 | 156,477,650 |
| Total | $656,009,359 | $650,254,988 | $659,160,469 |

There is a much improved feeling in Stock and Money circles to-day, and a sense of relief from the depression and dullness which preceded the great battles before Richmond, expressed by both Brokers and Merchants. Many of the old members of the Stock Exchange seem confident of a Spring speculation in the Railway and Miscellaneous Stocks, and of steadily advancing prices for the Government Funded Stocks; both without reference to the movement of Gold. A leading Stock firm, not heretofore active in Governments, took over a million of 5-20s at the morning Board to-day at 105⅝ ℘ cent. and other orders appeared for the 6 ℘ cents of 1881 and the 5 ℘ cents 10-40s. An unusually heavy speculation is going on in Erie shares, which have been made suddenly scarce on the Street for cash delivery. The extreme rise in a few days is 18@19 ℘ cent. The advance since last night on the cash stock was at one time 5@7 ℘ cent., though at the close of delivery-hour there was an easier supply of certificates, and the price fell back from 64 to 58 ℘ cent. The probability is that the temporary corner is relieved, though the speculation is by no means relaxed in this and the other New-York and Western Roads. The business to-day has been unusually heavy in amount. The mining shares, like Quicksilver, Cumberland and Mariposa, sympathize in the renewed activity at the Board.

Money has been lent among the Brokers to-day as cheap as 5 ℘ cent., though 6 ℘ cent. is the prevailing rule of the Street, at call, and 7@9 ℘ cent. on prime Merchant paper.

Exchange on London for the Cunarder to-morrow is 108½@109½ ℘ cent. for Gold. The market quiet. Certain speculators who have been predicting the return of United States 5-20's from Europe, are surprised to hear that these Stocks continue to be freely remitted by each steamer to Europe; brought here on orders without limit as to price or the rate of Exchange.

There is more steadiness in the Gold Room to-day, the range of sales 147@146½@147⅜ ℘ cent. The Room is comparatively free from excitement, and the fluctuations so tame of late (except for a few hours yesterday) that some of the operators are turning their attention to the Railway Speculation. The ups and downs in Erie for some days past have been quite equal to the most excitable gambling spirit of the Street.

After the Second Board, it appeared to be understood that Erie would be made very plenty to-morrow, and thereupon the sellers took courage, at lower figures, both for cash and on time. At 4 o'clock the general market closed about as follows, compared with the same hour yesterday. The extremes for Erie to-day were 64@54 ℘ cent., for immediate delivery. Governments were higher by ⅛@⅜ ℘ cent. at the close of the day:

| | Mon. | Tues. | | Mon. | Tues. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| U. S. 10-40s | 91⅜ | 91¾ | Pittsburgh | 55 | 55⅛ |
| U. S. 5-20's | 105⅜ | 105⅞ | Northwest | 23⅜ | 22¾ |
| T. Certificates | 98⅜ | 98⅜ | N. West Pref. | 49⅜ | 49⅜ |
| N. Y. Central | 88 | 87 | Rock Island | 84⅜ | 84¾ |
| Erie | 57⅜ | 54 | Fort Wayne | 82⅞ | 83⅜ |
| Hudson | 93⅜ | 94¼ | Cum'land Coal | 36⅜ | 35⅜ |
| Reading | 93⅜ | 92⅜ | Quicksilver | 63 | 64 |
| Mich. Southern | 55⅜ | 54⅜ | Mariposa | 14⅛ | 14⅜ |
| Illinois Cen | 94⅜ | 95⅜ | Ohio & M. Certs | 21⅞ | 22¼ |

There were two Stock firm suspensions at the Open Board of Brokers to-day, and one at the regular Board yesterday.

The following bids were made to-day for the City Bank Shares:

| | | | |
| Union | 115 | Central National | 98 |

WHY INJURE THE COMPLEXION BY POWDERS AND WASHES, which choke or fill up the pores of the skin, and in a short time leave it harsh and dry? It is in the blood, and if you want smooth and soft skin, use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It gives a brilliancy to the complexion.

CONSUMPTION—CONSUMPTION.—We say to persons having consumption, in whatever stage of the disease, use Dr. WISHART'S Pine Tree Tar Cordial, which is readily taken up by the blood and carried to lungs, and the healing principles of the tar act upon the inflamed sores of the lungs and stop their decay at once, and the patient's life is saved. The Pine Tree Tar Cordial has great power to dissolve the thick mucous that stops up the wind-passages of the lungs, and expels it from the system. The Pine Tree Tar Cordial purifies the blood and cleanses it of all scrofulous matter that is constantly breeding sores, internal and external. Salt rheum, blotches on the face, and all skin diseases, are especially cured by Dr. WISHART'S Pine Tree Tar Cordial. Office No. 10 North Second-street, Philadelphia. Sold at HELMBOLD'S Drug and Chemical Warehouse, No. 594 Broadway, New-York.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

STATED SESSION—TUESDAY, April 4, 1865.

Present—Morgan Jones, Esq., President, in the chair. Aldermen Moore, Norton, Flynn, Shannon, Gedney, McKnight, Ryan, Jeremiah, Brice, Kelly, Masterson, O'Brien, Farley, Van Voorhis.

The minutes of March thirty-one were read and approved.

Alderman Norton moved to suspend the regular order of business, for the purpose of presenting the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, The joyful intelligence of the capture and occupation of Richmond, Virginia, the capital of the so-called Confederate States, and the defeat and dispersion or capture of the rebel army of Virginia, led by the ablest men in the rebellious States, is calculated to incite in the heart of every loyal citizen of the republic, every lover of his country, every admirer of the principles of republican government, in the true acceptation of the term, the most profound gratitude to the Ruler of the Destinies of Nations, who has vouchsafed to crown with success the efforts of the people of the United States to suppress the most causeless, infamous, and yet gigantic rebellion against the most liberal and paternal Government on the face of the globe ever recorded in the page of history; and

Whereas, In the general joy and exultation that now pervades the loyal people of the country, consequent upon these and other successes, that have attended their efforts to preserve, intact, the integrity of the nation, and the principles of the government transmitted to them by the fathers of the republic, as well as in giving expression to their estimation of the indomitable energy and tenacity of purpose, combined with the preeminent military abilities of Lieutenant-General Ulysses S. Grant, now commanding the armies of the Union, it is the grateful duty, as it is the anxious desire of the people of this city, to participate; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Common Council of the City of New-York, speaking for its constituency—the people—do hereby give expression to the sentiments of regard and esteem, nay, almost of veneration, they entertain for the valor, perseverence, foresight, skill and energy that have characterized the management and direction of the campaigns of the Army of the Union under command of Lieutenant-General Ulysses S. Grant, and his able and intrepid Lieutenants, Sheridan, Sherman, Schofield, Terry, Kilpatrick, Thomas, Hancock, Ord, Wright, and the numerous other chieftains selected by him, to aid him in compelling obedience to and acknowledging the supremacy of the Flag of the Union—instruments, as he and they are, in the hands of Divine Providence for accomplishing His own wise purposes—and we hereby tender to them the congratulations of our people for the glorious successes they have achieved; and be it further

Resolved, (if the Board of Councilmen concur,) That a special committee of five members from each board, be appointed for the purpose of devising the best and most appropriate means of testifying the appreciation of our people, of the results of the victories given us, of giving expression to their joy, and of manifesting their gratitude to those through whose instrumentality they have been secured to us, and of humbly acknowledging the mercy and goodness of the bountiful Hand that has lavished such blessings upon us, and upon our common country, that the Board of Supervisors, the Chamber of Commerce, and such other organizations as may be so disposed, be afforded an opportunity to coöperate with the city authorities; and that the said committee be and hereby is empowered to make all the necessary arrangements for rendering the ceremonies to be observed equal to the occasion that called for their appointment, or as the circumstances may seem to demand upon the time fixed upon by them for the celebration of the victories by the people of this city.

The motion to suspend the rules was carried.

The resolution was then unanimously adopted.

And the same was directed to be sent to the Board of Councilmen for concurrence.

Whereupon the President appointed Aldermen Norton, Ryers, Jeremiah, Farley and Van Voorhis such committee on the part of this board.

Alderman Ryers asked but was refused permission to decline serving on the committee.

AS THE
TWIN BROTHERS.
Mr. Charles Pope..........as..........Chateau Renaud
Misses Farren, Maeder, Skerrett, Burke, Reeves, J. G. Burnett, J. W. Collier, Geo. Becks, J. W. Blaisdell, R. B. Holmes, W. H. Danvers, E. Barry, &c.
In the second act, a GRAND HARLEQUINADE, introducing the celebrated
MARTINETTI FAMILY,
MADAME MARZETTI,
AND A FULL BALLET OF CORYPHEES
under the direction of
MONS. GROSSI, MAITRE DE BALLET.
The highly wrought developments and extraordinary effects of this absorbing drama, remain unapproached by any other production. Nothing can exceed the wonder and intensity of a powerfully excited audience in witnessing its romantic situation and magical tableaux, aided as they are by peculiar and complicated machinery. The action of the first and second acts is supposed to occur simultaneously in Paris and Corsica.
